Hello All,

After a recent purchase of stash for my ever growing collection of fabric, I had made the mistake of leaving the closet door open to where I store said stash. Now, I know that most of you have a few if not more than one cubby or secret hiding spot in the house for your printed treasures. I, of course, had to explain to my dismayed and flabbergasted husband the virtues of quilting (a.k.a stash collecting).....

12 REASONS TO QUILT

1. To be creative
2. The love of sewing, fabric and color.
3. Make a treasured gift
4. Learn an "old world" craft
5. Build camaraderie with quilt friends
6. Create an heirloom to be handed down through generations.
7. Personal accomplishment
8. Escape from every day life.
9. To spend time at the quilt shop
10. To have something warm to snuggle up with
11. To keep your mind active and learn new things
12. To relieve stress

Now, as you all know, these are perfectly acceptable and reasonable excuses for the accumulation, I mean collecting, of fabric. Of course, the biggest reason that always works for me is "If mama ain't happy, no body is happy!" Happy collecting everyone!

Blissfully Stitching,
Bobbie

We need some members who have DVR's to record the KLRN Auction. It runs June 7 through June 16 starting at 6 pm. We hope to catch our quilt donation results. Call Sandra Retzloff to just record it. We need to know the amount our quilt brings.

Sunshine and Shadows

Candy Reinhard's husband, Bruce, suffered a stroke on 26 May. He is still in Neuro ICU at Methodist. Please keep her and the family in your thoughts and prayers.

Everyone was happy to hug and welcome Kris Thomson back to San Antonio at the May meeting. Her son, Wade, is making a good recovery from his April 11 fall.

Kris wrote, "To all of you who were aware of the situation thank you for your prayers.....obviously they worked. Kris and Patrick"

Margie Swaney writes that her younger son, Nathan, is graduating from O'Connor High School June 2, valedictorian of 678 students. He will be attending Princeton University in the fall to study engineering. Congratulations to Margie and Nathan.

Remember - birthdays, graduations, anniversaries, awards, are fun to share as well as the shadows of life. Email me, Amy Cottrell, at qorg@aol.com with your information or call at 972-475-2028
