One gold, two gold, three gold.....

So the list of gold medals won continues....I am in awe of this young athlete, Michael Phelps. Like many of you, I have been glued to the TV, watching our athletes compete in many events in Beijing, China. Most of all their dedication just blows me away.

As I sit here lamenting over the never ending ripping, cutting and re-sewing of my newest quilting creation, hey, I never did say I was an excellent quilter, just a quilter, it has occurred to me that these athletes truly must love what they are doing. Just the amount of time, efforts and courage it takes to pursue their dreams is inspiring.

Of course there is no comparison to say maybe the 4-6 weeks that I may spend on a quilt to a lifetime of training, sacrificing and practice that these athletes endure, a challenge they embrace everyday for four years or more, dreaming of the day that they could say, "I have done my best". It certainly puts things in perspective for me. No quilter is perfect; it is always a learning adventure. Though sometimes "Whew! It's finally finished!" is better than our best work. Hopefully we all keep in mind that it is the journey that counts, more than the number of finished quilts.

Blissfully Stitching,
Bobbie

PROGRAM NOTES

by Nechia Dawson, VP-Programs

The Almost Annual Garage Sale will be held after the September meeting. You can contact me at 210-213-4360 or by email at barefootquilter@satx.rr.com if you are interested in a table. Tables are $10.00 each; items for sale must be quilt related. We will set up during the break between the general meeting and announcements & bring and brag. So if you haven't kept your new year's resolutions to use up your stash, now is the perfect opportunity to add to someone else's.

The October program will be the Style Show - Tea Time, Texas Style. Registration of garments and accessories should be turned in by Sept 13 and all items must be completed by the October meeting.

If you have missed any of the workshops this year, then you have missed out on some serious fun. The good news is...that you have one more chance to have fun with us. The November workshops will be by Brenda Asmus. She will be teaching Kaleidoscope techniques. Just in time for you to get started on your Kaleidoscope quilt for next year's quilt show...Kaleidoscope of Quilts.

2300 Quilts

On a recent vacation through the mid west we took a brief detour to Lincoln, Nebraska to visit the International Quilt Study Center. We saw the beautiful new museum, two stunning exhibits and many interested visitors. If you are in that area I highly recommend a visit. It will be well worth your time.

"The International Quilt Study Center at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln was formed in 1997 as a result of the generous gift of nearly 950 quilts from the Ardis and Robert James Collection, along with a substantial pledge of financial support.

The Center's mission is to encourage the interdisciplinary study of all aspects of quilting worldwide and to foster the preservation of this important cultural tradition through the collection, conservation and exhibition of quilts and related materials."

"Today the International Quilt Study Center collection totals over 2300 quilts."

Winter Retreat

Winter Retreat is coming. Kris Thomson is taking deposits of $50 for this wonderful event. It will again take place at Newcombe's Tennis Ranch in New Braunfels.

This year each attendee has a choice of staying through Sunday or through Monday. Arrival date is Friday, January 30. If you leave on Sunday, February 1, the cost is $155. If you leave Monday, February 2, the cost is $230. It is a weekend of sewing, talking, eating, and sharing.

QUILT MANIA II – 16 DALLAS QUILT EXHIBITS ON DISPLAY September, 2008 to April, 2009.

Submitted by Amy Cottrell

Quilt Mania II is a collaborative exhibition of a wide variety of quilts September 26, 2008-April 1, 2009 at sixteen Dallas-area cultural institutions. Quilt Crawls are planned for November 8, 2008, January 24, 2009 and February 28, 2009. The crawls allow a great way to see several exhibits in one day, without having to worry about parking. The bus drops you off and picks you up at the door. It a fun day to spend with friends and quilts. Fees on the quilt crawls include all admissions to six museums, lunch and bus transportation. Registration information will be available on the Quilt Mania website soon. The final cost has not yet been determined, but is estimated it will range from $35-$45 for each crawl.

Quilt History Weekend - Friday, March 6, 2009 to Sunday, March 8, 2009

Quilt Mania II is the largest collaboration of quilt exhibitions ever mounted. Seventeen premier cultural institutions in Dallas, Texas area plan exhibitions of quilts September 26 2008 - April 1, 2009. A special Quilt History Weekend is planned for March 6-8, 2009. Participants will have the opportunity to see all the exhibitions that are open, hear quilt historian, Xenia Cord, share stories from her adventures as an antique quilt dealer, visit three quilt shops and see a private antique quilt collection.

Attendees will be picked up at the Dallas Fort Worth Airport 2 p.m. Friday, March 6, 2009 and returned to the airport by noon on Sunday, March 8, 2009. All transportation, admission to the exhibitions, meals, visits to three quilt shops, lecture by Xenia Cord and viewing of private quilt collection is included in the $195.00 registration fee. Dr. Marian Ann J. Montgomery, Quilt Mania II Project Coordinating Curator has organized this weekend and will accompany the tour. This is a once in a lifetime opportunity as Quilt Mania will not be repeated. All transportation, admission to the exhibitions, meals, visits to three quilt shops, lecture by Xenia Cord and viewing of private quilt collection is included in the $195.00 registration fee. Dr. Marian Ann J. Montgomery, Quilt Mania II Project Coordinating Curator has organized this weekend and will accompany the tour.

<http://www.quiltmania.org/Exhibitions.html> has the listing of exhibitions complete with addresses, phone numbers, and web sites. <http://www.quiltmania.org/> is the web address of the event.

Do you feel like you still need to prove something to someone about yourself? Do you feel you'll have proven yourself when you get a big house or a prestigious promotion or a new girlfriend? Your sense of self worth isn't really going to improve from having a bigger title after your name. Let go of external measures of your sense of self and worth. Directly tell the unsupportive people in your head and your life that you don't have to prove anything to them to feel okay about yourself. It's much simpler that way.

Sunshine –

Cheryl Jones is a proud Grandmother of a new baby girl, Niah Haley Cano, born July 2nd 2008. Niah is the first grand daughter and 1st great grand daughter. I am sure she will be equal to the challenge. I see quilts and pictures in the future. We wish Good fortune and happiness to her and her parents Rebecca and David Corman.

Shadows –

We share a Shadow about one of our members. Barbara Sue Campbell was born on July 30, 1950 in Littlefield, Texas, and went to be with the Lord on August 4, 2008. She was a resident for over thirty years of Tacoma, Washington, and moved back to San Antonio, Texas, four years ago. She is survived by her parents Garth and Mary Marjorie Campbell; sisters, Lucia Lincecum and husband Wayne, Kathy Danford and husband Fred; brother, John Campbell and wife Mimi; 4 nieces and 3 nephews. SERVICES A chapel service will be held at 2:00 PM on Wednesday, August 6, 2008 at Mission Burial Park North Mausoleum Chapel with interment to follow at Mission Burial Park North. You may sign the on-line guestbook at www.missionparks.com under the obituary section. Mission Park Funeral Chapel North.

Youth Alternatives

For many years our guild members have collected toiletries, clothing, etc. for the children of our community. The shelter we assist receives children who need immediate care due to a crisis situation. Many times these young people arrive with nothing except the clothes they have on their bodies. Therefore, if you have any of the following, please bring it to the guild meeting for distribution through Youth Alternatives: (Remember the children are ages 5-17)

- shoes, jackets, shirts, pants, skirts, p.f.'s
- toiletries (toothpaste, toothbrush, combs, hair brushes, shaving supplies, deodorants, shampoos, hair bands, clips, hand lotions, etc)
- games, puzzles, music players, transistor radios, sports equipment, etc.
- craft supplies: patterns, fabrics, sewing notions, scrap booking, yarns, crayons, drawing tools, etc.

Secondly, if you have large donations, please call the Roy Maas' Youth Alternatives, Inc, 340-0811 to arrange for a pick-up at your home. You may want to make this donation in the name of the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild. The facility has a thrift store whereby they sell items to raise monies for the facility.

Thirdly, this great activity is in need of one or two people to facilitate the guild's participation in this cause. Please contact Barbara Sumlin (436-5884 or email: barbara919@aol.com) to learn more about chairing this committee.

STORY TIME

by Nechia Dawson, Chair, Storybooks & Quilts to Go

It's time to distribute Storybooks and Quilts for the Fall Semester. I would like to have a Storybook Work Party after the September meeting to get the new quilts ready for the new school year. We have received so many new quilts this year, I know that the teachers and children are going to be excited about their new treasures. I need a few volunteers to help me assemble the information booklet for each new book and get them ready for their new totes. I would also like to recruit a few volunteers who can adopt one school district to drop off and pick up the quilts to that district's contact person.

My very special thanks for the quilts that have been completed this year:

- ◆ Ruby by Alison Lester; Quilter maker – Sherry Durringer
- ◆ The Patchwork Cat by N Bayley; Quilter maker – Ann Marie Matonak
- ◆ Martha Ann's Quilt for Queen Victoria by Kyra Hicks; Quilter maker – Kit Kucinkas
- ◆ Grandpa's Quilt by Betsy Franco; Quilter maker – Ellen Hernandez
- ◆ The Berenstain Bears and Mama's New Job by Stan & Jan Berenstain; Quilter maker – Ellen Hernandez

Thanks to everyone that is participating in the Alphabet challenge. All 26 letters have been adopted and nine (9) blocks have been returned. This quilt is going to be fabulous!

See you at Story Time, Nechia

Style Show 2008 – “Tea Time, Texas Style” October 11, 2008

Hope you are working on your wearable garments and accessories as well as challenge projects for our October 11 Style Show. Remember there will be prizes for the challenge items.

In the past we have allowed members to sell garments at the show and that will be an options again this year. The Guild will collect the money and mail you a check. The Guild gets 20% and the seller get 80%. You must determine the selling price and insert it on the application form (there is not a category for sales on the printed form.) If you have any questions call Ruth Felty at 688-2288.

Deadline for entry forms is September 13, 2008.

QUILT AUCTION September 27, 2008

Thanks to the beautiful quilts and wall hangings that are being donated for auction, we look forward to a very successful event and fund raiser. Be sure and get luncheon tickets early. Admission to the auction is free; however, seating may be limited based on number of tickets sold.

Tickets: $25 includes luncheon, cash bar, and valet parking.

For tickets, information, quilt donations; contact:

Lori Branson at 454-7170 or leave a message 299-7124

Community Response Committee

The quilt above was finished for the Community Response Committee. The top was donated by Mary McCarthy. The quilting was finished by Bernie Farris. The back was finished by Barbara Gilstad. The binding was added by Dea Jae Shore. That's what makes the quilts finished by the Guild so interesting and such fun. Next time volunteers are solicited, raise your hand for the part you like doing.

October 2008 BLOCK PARTY

Try your hand at a Card Trick. There are half square triangle, quarter square triangle, and half quarter square triangle. Let's make them a 12.5 inches square unfinished. Each small block is 4". Use brights for the cards and a WOW (white on white) background. There is a wonderful tutorial for all three at <http://quiltingpassion.com/tutorials/HST/hst.html> Bring as many as you like with your name attached to each one to the October Guild meeting. All names go in the basket and the lucky winner in the drawing gets all of the blocks.
