President's Letter

October's meeting was very interesting. We welcomed one guest and these new members : Sonja Koons, Gail Clover, Mary Anne Smith, Kathy Mills.

Calico Roses were presented to Dea Jae Shore for being Quilt Show Chair, and Lisetta Ennis for sponsoring very many new members to our guild.

Rosebuds were given to Carol Bryant, Jackie Randall, and Lani Nunley for their diligent assistance at the Mini-Retreat

Nominating Committee presented these members for our officers:

Judith Miller, President Pro-tem; Carol Bryant, 1st V.P.,Special Events; Rebecca Cook, 3rd V.P.,Programs; Cindy Shutt, Treasurer.

Our program speaker had a family emergency, forcing her to cancel our guild program. Cindy Shutt talked about the financial details of our programmed speakers and workshops, encouraging members present to be more active in participating.

I presented, as your president, a short questionnaire about small groups and belonging to our bee groups. The results of that may lead to more opportunities

Please plan to attend the important November meeting, where we vote on the proposed budget for 2014, and elect the persons to fill our vacating leadership positions.

See you on the 9th !

Sincerely,

Lila

Storybooks and Quilts to Go

Volunteers Cathy Wallace, Sandra Getzloff, Gail Dickman, and Sherry Duringer and I divided up the quilts for the fall semester and distributed them all by the end of the third week of September. Volunteers Margie Swaney and Ruth Felty also helped with delivery. This semester we have added 8 new locations, with 5 resulting from our quilt show display. We have 92 books/quilts (from total of 95) on loan to 22 locations (10 private schools and 12 public schools).

In July Larry Beaucamp turned in a quilt for the book Poppleton Has Fun. Melanie McKinnis, Vicki Owen, & Debbie Smith have offered to help with pickup/delivery in the future. Thanks so much once again to all who assist with this amazing project! Since the program is growing, we definitely need more completed quilts to put into circulation in the January rotation. If you adopted a book in the distant past (like over a year ago), please either complete your project or turn the book in so someone else can adopt it. I have purchased several new books also. Come check them out.

Community Outreach Report for July, August, September 2013

The third quarter of the year is already gone, and the volunteers from the GSAQG have been very busy contributing hours of time and beautiful items to the community. I won't print the entire report here, but will give you the highlights. Storybooks volunteers spent 36.5 hours and drove 168 miles to deliver the tubs of books and quilts for the fall semester to 22 schools. The Community Quilt Angels spent 39 hours washing, ironing, piecing, quilting and binding two quilts. Sixteen members of the Institute of Texan Cultures bee contributed 501 hours of hand quilting and interpretation at the museum, much of that time spent on a striking quilt that will be in the auction next year. And last, and certainly not least, Bright Hopes hours totaled a whopping 1222 with 167 quilts and 35 totes delivered to the Children's Shelter. I'd also like to say thank you to everyone who manned information tables at the Quilt Show.

Want to get involved? Here are the people to contact: Storybooks and Quilts to Go – Linda Kirk, Quilt Angels – Barbara Sumlin, ITC Quilters – Kay Allison, Bright Hopes – Carol Steely. Their contact information is printed in the newsletter each month.

I am looking for a person to take on a project that Larry Beauchamp has been in charge of for the past eight years. The San Antonio Eye Bank holds an annual quilt program for cornea donor families, in which personal patches submitted by the donor families are attached to a quilt. If you would be willing to take on this outreach, please contact me and I will forward the information to you.

Sherry Durringer, 5th VP for Community Outreach

Pieces of the Past, 43: Button Cards
Ellen Hernandez

The hey-day of button advertising was the early to mid 1900s. By then, sewing machines were in scores of homes, paper patterns were readily available, and the homemaker made many of the family's garments. Button manufacturers worldwide hired artists to create attractive, adorable and even sensual presentations to promote their products. Today, collectors are still enjoying these early pieces of art which now can sell at high prices. It's interesting to see that many of the old button cards are still intact, with no buttons missing. The original owners must have thought the cards were treasures as well. Enjoy a little 'button card eye candy.'

National Quilting Month

March is National Quilting month and in 2014 some of the branches of the San Antonio Public Library System want to display quilts. These need to be small wall hangings because wall space is limited and there is some paper work involved. If you are interested in offering one or more of your quilts for such a display, contact Rhonda Davila at RhondaDavila@sanantonio.gov. Deadline for submitting is 11/15/2013. This is an opportunity for you to help the general public view the changing face of quilting. I hope you will take advantage of this unique request. Ruth Felty

Winter Retreat

Final payment for the Winter Retreat is due at the November Guild meeting. If you need to know balance due please call or email Janet, 492-7684/ jjmiller@satx.rr.com. Payment at Guild meeting can be cash, check or credit card. If unable to attend the meeting checks may be mailed to Janet Miller, 16942 Hidden Oak Wds, San Antonio 78248 or call Cindy Shutt, 561-9689, for credit card payment. After final payment you will be able to sign up for table assignments.

Bees

Bernie Farris is the guild's beekeeper. She has just updated the bee list. You can find it on the web page under the services link. If you want to start a bee in your area of town or your area of interest, contact Bernie. She will be able to give you some tips and help advertise it at the guild meetings. There are open bees. Check the list for the meeting place and contact person.

Quilt Project Committee News

(commonly called QPC)

(This committee provides members an opportunity to try new techniques or just practice what they know.)

Whew! It felt good to turn over the quilt tops we finished at the Work Day to the Auction Committee -- and to have two immediately checked out for quilting! If you recognized some of the blocks in these quilt tops as some that you donated, please let me know. When you donate your UFOs, I try to keep your name with it so we can give proper credit, but didn't do a very good job on these. Plans are under way to have some new projects for you to try soon, so check our table each month.
