President's Corner

HEART OF HEARTS

As I sit in my chair trying to decide what to write, I must reflect back over 2001. With the help of each and everyone in the guild I did have a good year. It meant a lot to be able to guide the guild through 2001 and I hope that we continue with an exciting year in 2002.

I must plead again for someone to volunteer for the position of President Pro Tem. Being a part of the board is a very rewarding experience. Anyone who might be interested can call any board member if you need more information.

I was very pleased with everyone's responses at the January meeting. Our BeeKeeper Elaine Staller is getting ready to issue the Bee Calendar in the newsletter. Elaine told me that when her request for the calendar information was made at the meeting she was inundated with information and couldn't have been more pleased. In the same way, when Loveta Fowler mentioned at the meeting that she had kits of quilt blocks to be put together as part of QPC she went through a lot of kits that very morning. And Angela Knaack had new patterns for people to borrow and definitely went home with less than she came to the meeting with. And last but not least there was a very good turn out of the membership including six new members. Let's all keep the excitement up.

Last month I displayed some of my finished and unfinished quilts to help brighten up the membership meeting. Now it's your turn. My goal is to get members or Bee's to display their own quilts or antique quilts at each monthly meeting. I have a display stand that will expand to 8'-10" high by 9'-6" wide. We also have clothesline and clothespins to display them all. Let me know what month you, you and your friends or your Bee's would like to display quilts to liven up the front wall. This is the month for hearts so WHOM CAN I DEPEND ON.

It won't be long before the auction will be upon us so get the sewing machines humming to see what we can come up with. The auction can only be really successful as a result of the members' efforts to make quilts both large and small. Let's keep those sewing machines and hands busy.

February is the month for Valentines. I wish everyone a HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY!

Betty Opiela

AUCTION 2002

As you know, this year's auction will be on June 29 at the Leon Valley Community Center. I have already received some donations. If you are not sure about what you would like to do let me help with a few suggestions:

Christmas wall hangings
 Red work quilts
 Shaggy rag throws
 Wall hangings for the kitchen
 Old fashion tied comforters
 Vests, size large
 Picture quilts any size
 Embroidery quilts or wearable art

Last year many of the bed size quilts and wall hanging that averaged from $245 to $390, were made with traditional blocks like the log cabin, nine patch, pinwheels, stars and patriotic items.

Quilts with traditional blocks with appliqué averaged about $150 to $264.

The runner-up was baby quilts, which averaged $133.

This is a wonderful way to do something you love doing anyway and make a contribution to the guild.

 Auction Chair

STYLE SHOW

The 2001 Quilt Show was a wonderful event that we all enjoyed but now it is time to begin the excitement of the 2002 Style Show. The event will take place on Saturday, September 21 at the Embassy Suites Hotel.

Have you started your garment? It is time to begin thinking about what you would like to make. Any garment that is pieced or quilted (or both) will qualify. This is not a judged event so we hope that many of you will have one or more entries.

Wearable Art garments are nice but you can also enter a garment that is fun to make and comfortable to wear. It is a wonderful feeling to see your work on the runway.

The design phase is the first and often the most difficult part of making a garment. Some points of inspiration might be:

- * select a theme such as: feminine (lace and ribbons), Texas or American holiday.
- * pick a color you love; use shades and tints of that color.
- * use a special fabric as your inspiration.
- * begin with a favorite pattern (one that fits you).
- * brainstorm ideas with friends and/or bee members.
- * pick a favorite quilt pattern (block).
- * inspiration may come from a favorite trim or embellishment: button, beads, or even a piece of jewelry.

Creativity is fueled by dreaming and dream time is a critical factor. Relax, dream and most of all have fun. But get started soon!

Next month look for more ideas and inspiration for your style show!

PATRIOTIC CHALLENGES LATE TURNS BEING ACCEPTED

The majority of patriotic challenge squares were turned in by the January meeting, 37 out of 52. Would really like to include everyone's squares, so I am holding the project open until the February general meeting on Saturday, February 9. Tentatively, all who want to help will meet during the service break and determine a good date/time to have a sewing/setting hot soup session at my home. I am thinking the weekend after the guild meeting, on either Saturday or Sunday, February 16 or 17. We will need squarerer-uppers (novel new word, but it works for me), pressers, sewers, cutters, and designers. A few good "yentas" (Jewish word for those who give sage advice during a project) are also acceptable

Amy

WEARABLE ARTS NOTE

It is with great regret that I must announce that I am giving up leadership of the Wearable Arts Group after ten years. Personal and family health concerns have made it necessary for me to scale back my outside activities. I am hoping that someone will step forward to lead this wonderful little group. Volunteer to Rebecca Cook. Call me if you want more information. Kay Allison - 733-8578.

HOSTESSES NEEDED

Want to meet a nationally known quilt maker "up close and personal?" Why not become a Guild Hostess for a weekend?

- + Meet a ☆☆☆☆ Quilter
- + Help the Guild (and Texas) maintain a positive and friendly image
- + Help out the Guild
- + Earn one free workshop of your choice
- + Receive reimbursement for costs

What does hosting include?

- + Transportation – To/from the airport, guild meeting, workshops, etc.

- + Arrange for meals
- + Other activities as inspire you (quilt shop hopping, see the Alamo, etc.)

If you're interested in adding your name to the Guild Hostess list, please contact Holly Nelson, Program Director, at mnhel@earthlink.net or (210) 698-7108. I'll ask for some demographic info (pets, children, smoking, etc.), then contact you when there's a visitor coming who's a "match."

CALICO ROSE

Not once but twice this lady has taken on the task of getting a quilt top hand quilted and ready for the quilt show. In so doing, she ends up doing a major part of the quilting herself. Selling the raffle tickets then becomes a priority to her.

In addition, this lady takes on many other jobs for the guild but I am nominating her for her work with the raffle quilt. Thank you CAROL ROUSE for all that you have contributed to the guild.

BRIGHT HOPES

Report for 2001

The Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild donated 500 comforters and 131 tote bags to the Children's Shelter of San Antonio. It took approximately 1301 volunteer hours to do this. That included making the comforters and tote bags, shopping, putting quilts together, bookkeeping and some travel. I say approximately because I know that I have missed recording some trips and the numerous phone calls are impossible to tally. Committee members and those who helped with the kits are Kathy Church, Mary Ann Flynn, Susan Johnson, Sylvia Heck, Carolyn Williams and Carla Schladoer.. Then there were all those people who made quilts and the outstanding Bees who contributed in bulk. Thanks to everyone who participated and those who cheered us on.

- Who, Where, How to contact
- Why they'd be a good program
- New techniques you'd like to see
- Something interesting you've seen surfing the Net (send the link!)

D T - 2003

EEP IN THE HEAR

DEEP IN THE HEART – CHALLENGE

Our theme category gives you an opportunity to express something that is deep in your heart.

Our challenge lets you show your heart to the world! The challenge fabric is "Sparkling Rainbow Hearts" by General Fabric. As you can see it has hearts, hearts, and more hearts. How many you use and how you use them is up to you.

The basic rule for our challenge is that a recognizable portion of the challenge fabric must be used to produce any quilted item. No restrictions on what you make as long as it is quilted. If a wall hanging or bed quilt the maximum perimeter must not exceed 160 inches.

Challenge fabric pieces are approximately 18 x 20 (some are slightly smaller and some slightly larger!). There is a $5.00 fee to participate. The fees will be used to provide prize money for the winner (or winners) of the challenge. There are sixty pieces of fabric available so the potential prize fund is $300.

Fabric will be available from Larry Beauchamp at the February meeting and subsequent meetings until it is gone. Challenge entries will be due July 26, 2003. Items may be delivered to Live Oak Civic Center on September 30.

DEEP IN THE HEART – MY MOTHER'S QUILT

For many of us quilting was embedded deep in our heart by a quilting mother or grandmother. At our 2003 show we would like to recognize these inspirational women with a special exhibit called, "My Mother's Quilt."

For this exhibit we are asking members for quilts made by their mothers (or grandmothers) that provided special inspiration for them. You can submit a quilt by providing a photograph of the quilt, information on the maker, and a short explanation as to why this quilt is special to you.

We will select quilts from those submitted for our exhibit. We will be able to display only a limited number of these quilts so all submissions may not be chosen. Give your pictures and stories to Larry Beauchamp no later than the January 2003 meeting!
