President's Letter

It was certainly thrilling to watch "Bring and Brag" at our June meeting. Our members showed exciting quilt after quilt.....followed time after time with the statement "This is for the auction." Terri Ryan was getting concerned that we would have our shortest auction in history....but, as usual, you came through. By the time you read this the auction will be over.....successfully I'm sure. Thank to everyone who contributed items and hours to this annual event.

I was also pleased to see the line-up of people signing up as volunteers for our quilt show. It takes lots of people to run a show the size of ours and again you are rising to the challenge. We of course can never have too many volunteers! So, if you haven't signed up, you can get on the list at the July meeting, or contact Janet Miller to let her know of your availability.

Advance tickets and show pins are available also. Janet has tickets and I have pins. Both will be on sale at the July meeting.

Entry blanks are in the newsletter, on the web site, and will be at the July meeting. We have extended the entry deadline to August 9 (our meeting date).

We also would like more entries in our special exhibit that we are calling "My Mother's Quilt." These are to be quilts that have been important in your life and that may have influenced you as a quilter. Despite the title we'll take quilts made by someone other than your mother!!!!

Finally, mark Thursday, October 2 on your calendar. Our Awards Ceremony will be held at 5 pm that day at the Live Oak Civic Center. Not only will you find out who won ribbons, but you can enjoy refreshments and a FREE show preview.

Larry

July Program — July's guest will be Kathy Kansier. Born and raised in Wisconsin, Kathy's mother taught her simple embroidery stitches when she was 5. This was the beginning of her lifelong interest in all facets of sewing. She later developed an interest in antiques. This, along with her friendship with the Wisconsin Amish, sparked a love for quilts. As an avid quiltmaker, Kathy enjoys all types of quilting techniques. Her quilts have won many awards and have been displayed nationally. She specializes in hand appliqué, three dimensional appliqué, and crazy quilts.

Friday, the 11th

Workshop "Grand Finales." Border designs, mitering, bindings, prairie points, scallops, labels, hanging sleeves, tabs.

[$35, 9:30am – 4:30pm, Cavender Buick, I-10 @ UTSA Blvd.]

Saturday Program: "Whatever Was That Judge Thinking?" Have you ever wondered why one quilt wins over another? Kathy shares the process of quilt show judging, what judges look for and why they make the decisions they do. Kathy shares easy tips to help you make award-winning quilts.

Saturday, the 12th

Workshop "Victorian Crazy Quilt Stitches." Create a sampler block of embroidery, silk ribbon and beading stitches.

[$25, 1:00pm – 4:00pm, Trinity United Methodist Church]

There are still a few openings in our July workshops. To register, please contact Holly Nelson at 698-7108 or via e-mail at mhnel@earthlink.net. Scheduled for July are the following (check the GSAQG web site for additional details):

September Workshops – Registration for Jackie Robinson's workshops will begin at the July guild meeting. Class sizes are limited, so sign up early. Both workshops will be at Trinity United Methodist Church. (For samples of the workshop quilts, check the GSAQG website at <http://www.sanantonioquilt.org/september.htm>.)

Friday workshop – "Frank Lloyd Wright's Tree of Life." Based on art glass designed by Mr. Wright, explore the use of strata sets and diagonal cuts to create this design from the Darwin D. Martin House in Buffalo, NY. This workshop is NOT difficult, and it has an art-y flair, so satisfies the desire for an art quilt in a traditional quilter. Advanced beginners and intermediate quilters (not for a new quilter). [$35, 9:30am – 4:30pm]

Saturday workshop – "Strip and Slash." A new concept in piecing. There are absolutely NO half-square triangles made for these quilts, but you certainly do get them. A process AND product workshop. All levels.  $10 materials fee, and Jackie provides ALL the cut strips for this workshop. [$25, 1:00pm – 4:00pm]

The Programs Calendar is up and running on our web site! Check out the upcoming schedule at http://www.sanantonioquilt.org/calendar_of_events.htm.

Our guest for June's program was Donna Gates, who gave us the story and the creative steps behind her stunning Texas Wildflower Quilt. Originally made for her sister to reflect her study of botany, the quilt incorporates "anatomically correct" representations of the wildflowers found throughout our state. Donna started with a comprehensive book on the flowers, collected and dried many samples, then began the large task of finding the fabrics that matched the actual colors found in the flowers. What made the quilt sparkle are the "extras" she incorporated into each flower, using embroidery, crayons and fabric pens to catch just the right detail. A project three years in the making, it is truly a work of art.

For those of you who were unfortunate enough to miss Donna's presentation, you can see a picture of it at Las Colchas' web site (<http://www.lascalchas.com/texas.htm>). If you're interested in starting your own ode to Texas, patterns and kits are available at Las Colchas.

May/June Update: Quilt Blocks from Japan Project

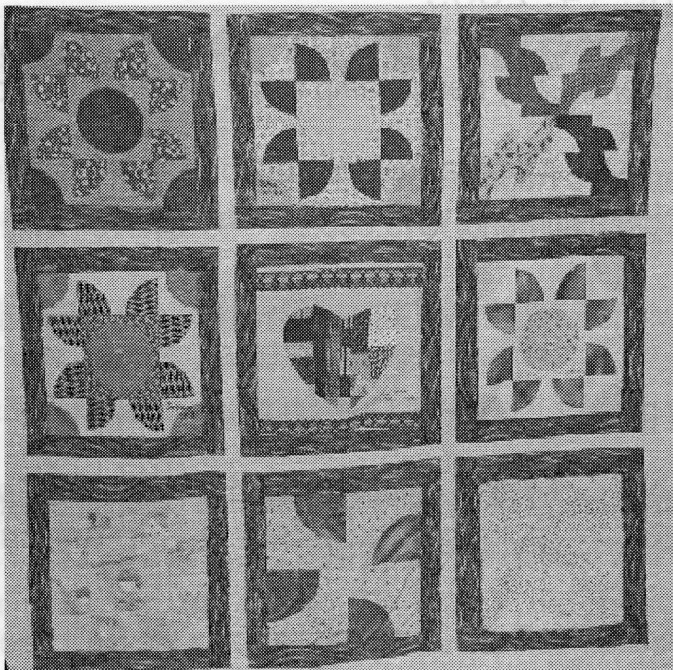

As of June 14th, the number of quilts in our "Reflections on 9-11" quilt collection has increased again. However, we have an intriguing mystery on our hands. We do not know who completed this 9 patch quilt that appeared today.

Can you help us solve this mystery?

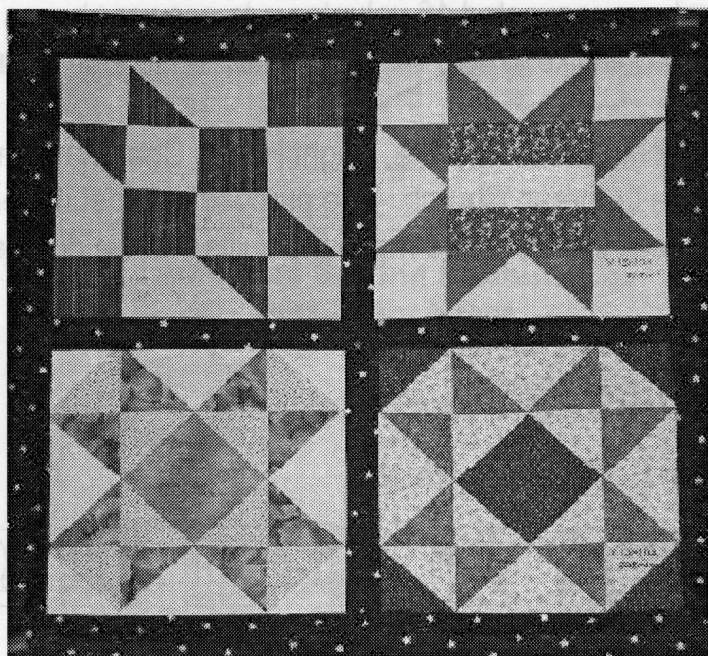

Since our April meeting, both Ethyl Howey and Barbara Wofford have also completed and turned in their quilt tops. Thank you!

We are also pleased to announce that Sharan McCall selected a baggie of quilt blocks from the basket today. If you would like to sign up to make a quilt with any of the blocks remaining in the basket, please contact Barbara (gilstad@texas.net). A group of us are planning on meeting for lunch in August to add sleeves and labels to the finished quilts. If you would like to join us and lend a helping hand, watch for the date, time and place where we will be meeting in the next newsletter.

Charlotte Keener has volunteered to quilt Ethyl Howey's beautiful quilt top. If you and a friend would like to back, bind and quilt Barbara Wofford's four patch quilt top, please give us a call. (Have you decided on names for your quilts yet, Ethyl and Barbara?) We also want to thank Ethyl Howey for donating a bag full of batting to our project. So, let us know if you need batting to finish your quilt top.

DEEP IN THE HEART – MY MOTHER’S QUILT

For many of us quilting was embedded deep in our heart by a quilting mother, grandmother or other family member. At our 2003 show we would like to recognize these inspirational women with a special exhibit called, "My Mother's Quilt."

For this exhibit we are asking members for quilts made by their mothers, grandmothers or other family members that provided special inspiration for them. You can submit a quilt by providing a photograph of the quilt, information on the maker, and a short explanation as to why this quilt is special to you.

We will select quilts from those submitted for our exhibit. We will be able to display only a limited number of these quilts so all submissions may not be chosen. Give your pictures and stories to Larry Beauchamp no later than the August 2003 meeting!

KLRN Fund Drive – July 26th. For years (until HGTV came along), the only place to find programs on quilting was the local Public Broadcasting Station. Today, KLRN continues the tradition by bringing us a variety of series that feed our ~~additions~~ passions. Georgia Bonesteel, Fons & Porter, and others come into our homes because PBS is there – and now they're asking for our help during their July fund drive.

From noon to 2:00pm on Saturday, July 26th, KLRN will be airing a view of the Pacific Northwest Quilt Show. They'll be offering copies of the video and tickets to the GSAQG Quilt Show in return for membership pledges. What they need from us are (1) Quilts to display (and talk about) during pledge breaks, and (2) Volunteers to man the phones. Here's how you can help:

- To loan a quilt for viewing during the show, please bring it with you to the July guild meeting. Complete the form below and pin it to the back of the quilt. This will ensure we get it back to you promptly and that we also have something intelligent to talk about during the break. ☺
- To volunteer for the phone bank, call Holly Nelson (698-7108) or Candace Tull (695-2068) and we'll put you on the list.

It should be a lot of fun, so join us! (For questions, call Candace or Holly.)

Books and Quilts

The Storybook and Quilts To Go project has completed another successful school year.

The books and quilts are home, resting for the summer but will be back in the school in September. They were used 74 times and were viewed by six thousand seven hundred ninety seven (6797) people. Yes you read that correctly, over six thousand people saw the quilts between January and May of 2003. What do you think of that? The project has a few requests. We have a wish list that consist of the following:

Books needing quilts - The Seasons Sewn , A Quilt for Baby
Patchwork Tales Confetti Eggs

Book needed - Quilts From the Quiltmaker's Gift

If you are interested in making a small quilt to go with one of our books, please contact
