Comfort

After serving as your leader for eight months I find myself out of ideas for newsletter articles. Then it happened – Katrina! As I sit and watch the tragedy unfold on live TV coverage, my heart breaks. I feel so spoiled, so lucky and at the same time, so guilty for my comfortable situation.

For many years, I have found comfort in quilting and this time is not different. What is it about the need to create? How can textiles bring so much comfort to the creator and then to the receiver of the finished quilt? I cannot tell you how or why it works, I only know that it does.

I feel sorry for those who do not have such a comforting outlet and maybe that is why I love teaching. For me it is a way to share my passion with others and hopefully they will find the same relief that I find.

Please forgive this very personal outpouring. At this writing it is show time! Maybe our show helped others to overcome the sadness and emptiness we are all experiencing over the tragedy on our own gulf coast. Keep the needles moving and find comfort in what you do.

On a lighter note, Barbara Gilstand and I just returned from Longview where we presented a program of our Storybooks and Quilts To Go Project. They were so excited! The officers thought maybe next year they could begin such a project but the members are ready to begin – now. We believe they will be successful and are thrilled that we had the opportunity to help them begin such a wonderful community service project. Our own Nadine Darby was instrumental in getting us the invitation to present the program and she has already volunteered to make a quilt and purchase books. Good luck to the Country Patches Quilt Guild.

Calico Rose Award

This month's calico rose goes to Lucille Shean for her work at the Institute of Texan Cultures both at the quilt frame quilting and coordinating volunteers and all the work she does for the Folklife Festival. Lucille was nominated by Carol Rouse.

General Meeting Minutes September 10, 2005

President: The meeting was called to order at 10:00. All members and visitors were welcomed to the new site for GSAQG meetings. The August minutes were approved as published. The Calico Rose this month goes to Lucille Shean for her work at Folklife Festival and organizing ITC quilters. Notification was received from Shurguard Storage that monthly fees will increase again. Volunteers were solicited to research the local area and provide a report with an acceptable location and fees. Mary Ruth Flores, Bernie Farris and Helen Johnson volunteered for this project.

The blue and white quilt on display has basket blocks made by Ethel Howey, Ruth did the setting and binding, ITC quilters quilted it and it is now a permanent quilt in our collection. Barbara Gilstad will make a label for "Ethel's Blue Baskets" and De Leclair will have it on display at the quilt show.

Members were reminded to visit the classroom with Silent Auction items. Monies from this sale will be directed to the Ethel Howey Fund.

Treasurer: July Report - Operating Fund $14,858.45, Reserve $26,535.84, CD $20,000.00 and Total $61,394.29.

Special Events: The Houston bus trip is full but Barbara Wofford has a reserve list for those interested. De Leclair reports she has 246 quilts for the quilt show, and reminded everyone to have sleeves on their quilts. Janet Miller asked for "hanging teams" of 4 and Jean Powell asked for "white glove" volunteers.

Archives Update by Sherry Allred

We have a welcome addition to the guild's archives: a Past Presidents' Gift Quilts 3-ring binder. These are the quilts given to guild presidents when they go out of office. Of our past thirteen presidents, the binder contains documentation for five. They are (in alphabetical order) Valerie Arcement (1989-90,) Larry Beauchamp (1997-98,) Cathy Baisley (1999-2000,) Amy Cottrell (1995-96) and Betty Opiela (2001-02.)

If you have served on any of the following committees and have any notes, drawings, photos, fabric samples, etc. pertaining to these past presidents, please contact Sherry Allred (see guild directory) so that this binder can be brought up to date: Sherry Allred (1987-88,) Larry Beauchamp (2003-04,) Lou Ann Caywood (1993-94,) Patti Centeno (1992,) Charlotte Flesher (1985,) Ethel Howey (1983-84,) Bonnie McCoy (1980-82,) Etta McFarland (1991) and Cindy Stitt (1986).

When this binder is complete, the chairperson for an outgoing president's quilt may check it out as a reference for past ideas, designs, and examples of the type of documentation needed. Thank you."

Community Outreach Update

Fall at the Alamo

You are invited to attend the re-enactment of “Fall at the Alamo” after our general meeting on Saturday, October 8th. To learn more about San Antonio’s yearly event at the Alamo, be sure and read Mary McCarthy’s article about the guild’s role in the “Fall at the Alamo” in this edition of Common Threads. If you have questions, contact Mary Ruth or visit www.drt-inc.org for additional details.

Youth Alternatives

Roy Maas’ Youth Alternatives is a private non-profit organization which provides that needed hand to young people who find themselves in some type of crisis situation. If you would like to donate any items, such as quilted wall hangings, to their auction supporting the 29th Anniversary “Camino de Amor” Gala, a Youth Alternatives fund raising event held at the Westin on October 22nd, please give Jean Powell a call. Jean Powell, Chair, Youth Alternatives Committee

Storybooks and Quilts to Go

The guild’s storybooks and quilts have been in the spot light this summer. As mentioned in the newsletter last month, Ruth Felty shared them with Country Patches, Nadine Darby’s quilt guild in Longview. And on September 2, Barbara Gilstad presented an overview of the program at the 12th Annual Roundup for Librarians at Region 20 Education Service Center with three Saint Mary’s Hall teachers who described how they have used some of the quilts. Linda Abati focused on quilt blocks and their unique messages, such as those found in the quilt complimenting Sweet Clara and the Freedom Quilt and Under the Quilt of Night. Kay Dahle described a writing activity in which she involved parents and children to focus on cooperation, the dominant theme surrounding the quilt in the story Luka’s Quilt. And Shangruti Desai demonstrated how she engaged young children in two storybooks: A Coat of Many Colors and The Quiltmaker’s Gift. The quilts and story books sparked the imagination of the librarians and teachers who were present as evidenced by their sparkling eyes during the presentation and their thoughtful comments following the presentation. Barbara Gilstad, Chair,

Chair: Mary Ruth Flores

Fall at the Alamo is an annual one-day re-enactment of village life in Texas around 1835. On the second Saturday in October, dressed in authentic period costumes, participants demonstrate crafts, occupations, and skills appropriate to the early nineteenth century. Beginning, officially, with the boom of an Army cannon at nine a.m., this free, day long event attracts thousands of attendees, many of them visitors to our city.

The Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild has participated in Fall at the Alamo for eight years. Mary Ruth Flores and her committee have a reserved place in the ballroom - a prime location for catching cool breezes on a hot day and an enviable dry spot on a rainy day. Carrying suitable sewing supplies (no plastic!) in hand baskets and wearing dresses made from patterns and materials evoking the era, the ladies work around a quilting frame or on lap hoops. The quilt in the frame is one made in reproduction fabrics using the rectangular nine patch pattern of the only labeled 1834 Texas quilt in the Smithsonian collection. This quilt is sized to fit an antique 1850s bed in Mary Ruth's possession. The guild members have an enjoyable time answering questions about quilting and quilts, and pretending to be ladies of the period. There is always plenty of food and drink and great camaraderie with the other re-enactors. The stories shared by the public and the interest displayed in what they are doing make the quilters feel their participation is truly worthwhile.

Mary Ruth Flores would love to have more quilters join her in this wonderful setting. If you would like to dress up in costume, use old fashioned quilting tools, and step back in time for a day, please call Mary Ruth at 694 6059 or e-mail her at aagarita@satx.rr.com. If you would like to see just how this role playing is done, please visit Fall at the Alamo after the guild meeting on Saturday, October 8. There is plenty of parking and it would be a great fun day for the whole family.
