LET US GIVE THANKS!

When I was a child my favorite season of the year was fall. The trees were ablaze with wonderful color as were the gourds, apples, pumpkins, and other harvest crops. Obviously I did not live in south Texas!!

Fall's highlight, that wonderful American invention of Thanksgiving, always gives us an opportunity to think about blessings. On a personal note, I am thankful for good health, loving children, a generous husband and the anticipation of the arrival of a granddaughter. I am sure your list is also long and meaningful.

As a guild we also have a lot to be thankful for. Twenty-six years ago there was a group of dedicated quilters who gave our guild a very firm foundation. We have a wonderful meeting place and many dedicated volunteers who make it possible to contribute to our community through many fulfilling activities such as Bright Hopes, Community Outreach, Youth Alternatives and many others.

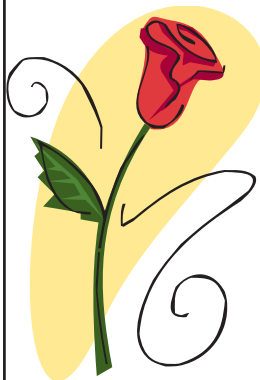

I personally want to thank you, the membership, for allowing me to serve as your president for almost two years. Although at times this has been a frustrating job, the benefits far out way the few problems. I am also thankful to all the board members who have supported me over these past two years. Their dedication, professionalism, and insight are critical for keeping our organization viable. Of course none of this could happen without all our members. You are appreciated and valued even though we seldom tell you so.

During this season of harvest, let each and every one of us be thankful! What is on your list?

Ruth

Calico Rose Award

The Calico Rose for October goes to Kitty Janiga for her wonderful catering of the style show. The menu was as fabulous as the food.

Program Notes

JENNIE RAYMENT PROGRAM AND WORKSHOPS

This skinnyish, red-haired, slightly wacky Brit is totally obsessed with "Nipping and Tucking" – fabric manipulation and surface texture. Unique in her field, she's now internationally known for her quick, simple, innovative and original techniques with manipulated material. Jennie lectures and teaches a wide variety of classes to patchworkers, quilters and embroiderers.

LECTURE: MAGICAL MANIPULATIONS WITH THE MUSLIN MISTRESS

A remarkably lighthearted romp through the mysteries of fabric manipulation and surface texture mainly from 'Tucked Up in Bed' and 'Tinkering with Texture'. See the vast array of ingenious ideas for twiddling and fiddling material and giggle at the antics of the worlds most infamous 'Muslin Mistress' and hear about Miss Whiplash. All Show and Tell - no sleepy making slides, just a little sex and stitching.

FRIDAY WORKSHOP

TWITCH, TWIDDLE AND TWEAK MANIPULATED MAGIC

An ingeniously innovative 3D circular sunflower-like design packed with nifty notions for tactile and textural manipulation. Easy to assemble - no awkward templates - just Jennie's specially simple novel piecing technique.

Creativity rules OK – play with the shapes, experiment with colour, embellish with beads and embroidery, tuck in an insert or two and Hey Presto! a delightfully delectable hanging/cushion/quilt block approx 28" square. (class from 'Creative Tucks and Textures'.)

SATURDAY WORKSHOP

TWIDDLING AND FIDDLING FOR THE TERRIFIED

Amaze yourself with this nipped, twiddled and manipulated 3D 'Lily' block. Oh so simple - just a few squares and rectangles. Add an intriguing arched border (no nasty curved seams) to complete this delightful 20" square block/panel/cushion/quiltlet (or use the pieces for two 12" squares). Play with shapes and structural forms, enjoy a little inserting, folding, padding and persuading to produce your own uniquely designed block.

Quilt Show 2007

A Fiesta of Quilts

Janet Miller and her team unveiled the Raffle quilt for the 2007 Quilt Show. It is a dazzling representation of the spirit of San Antonio. See this beautiful quilt in color at www.sanantonioquilt.org/pages/quiltshow.htm

Tips & Hints

by Holly Nelson

- If you use regular photocopy paper for paper piecing, very lightly mist the paper with water before tearing it off. This makes it easier to remove and less likely to rip out your stitches.
- To keep from having to match corners of your quilt blocks, stagger the blocks and use a half-block at opposite ends of each row.
- To keep your bobbin and thread spools together, use a twist tie – up through the thread spool, through the bobbin hole and a quick twist and no more digging around for a match. The twist ties that come with garbage bags are long enough for most spools.

Sunshine and Shadows

Betty Tope's and Liz Hooge's 92-year old father is in intensive care. Betty asked that we pray for him. Thanks to Lois Beauchamp for the information. And our prayers are for Betty and Liz and their family.

Bobbie Ashley relayed that Mary Rodriguez's husband, At, died in September. The funeral was Wednesday, September 20 at St. Mathews Catholic Church with burial following at Fort Sam. Our prayers and thoughts are with Mary. Mary's address is 11119 Whisper Valley, San Antonio, TX 78230. Mary is not a Guild member, but a friend of many of our members.

Shirley Carter had surgery Monday, September 25, for a hernia. She went back to the hospital with an obstruction a few days later, but is now mending well (good enough to go to a quilting sale!) Shirley, our prayers and good wishes for a continued smooth recovery.

Sorry I didn't get to say a good-bye to all of you. Our house sold September 2 while in Dallas, we found a house quickly and things went like lightning from there. Thanks to Kitty Janiga, Lois Beauchamp, Marilyn Bellows, Dee Leclair and Sherry Allred for answering my call of panic! Lois, Dee, and Marilyn packed my sewing room on Sunday, October 1. Sherry packed the pantry on Sunday and Kitty who packed the living room and hallway. . A really big thanks to Marilyn and Kitty who came again on Tuesday and packed the whole kitchen. Also thanks to everyone who sent encouraging messages. They convinced me that destroying the house and its contents was NOT a good solution. We moved on Wednesday, October 4 and unloaded in Dallas, Friday, October 6. Miss you all. If you're ever in the Dallas area, please holler! We are only 3 miles north of I-30 in Rowlett. Our new address in 3601 Bermuda Drive, Rowlett, TX 75088. Phone is 972-472-2028.

From Margie Cook we learn than Kalico and Keepsakes in Lytle is closing. She has converted her garage into a Quilting Center so that she can continue teaching. They are now finished and open for business. So now comes the fun of continuing to build the business! She is now developing the lessons plans for next year. They will be having a First Saturday monthly event, a variety of classes, a mini-retreat, and special events. The classroom can easily accommodate 15 students. Good luck to Margie on her new venture!

It was announced at the Saturday, October 14th meeting that Lucille Shean has had a stroke, is home and would appreciate cards. Our best wishes and prayers for a good recovery go to Lucille. Her address is 3302 Litchfield Street, San Antonio, TX 78230-4006.

Remember, if you have any news that you want to share with Guild members, I am still doing the Email Tree and Sunshine and Shadows. My email will remain qorg@aol.com. My cell phone will change soon, but for now is still 210-393-8878. Amy C.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH UPDATE

Community Response Committee (CRC)

The San Antonio Children's Museum and Jefferson Outreach for Older People were recipients of a quilt donation from the GSAAQG in October 2006.

The quilt that went to the Children's Museum was donated by Sandra Retzloff. The quilt donated to Jefferson Outreach was created by Carol Rouse and quilted by Stephanie Martin. We are extremely thankful to Sandra, Carol and Stephanie for their generosity to the CRC and ultimately to San Antonio organizations that do so much good for our greater community. Our Guild benefits indirectly by the publicity generated from our donations at the charity event where the quilt are auctioned/raffled off. Submitted by Gundy Cleven 16 Oct 2006

Thanks for the Memories

This past year has been filled with many changes for Debra Pavelka. As a result, she has decided that the time has come for her to relinquish her role as chair of the Bright Hopes committee at the end of this year. To ensure a smooth transition, she informed the board of her plan in October so that a new chairperson for Bright Hopes can be recruited by January. Thank you for your hard work, Debra, and for making sure the San Antonio Children's Shelter received an ongoing supply of quilts during your tenure with the help of so many of our members who made Bright Hopes quilts. We will never forget your smiling eyes when we visited your table at guild meetings to either pick up quilt kits and/or to turn in finished quilts for you to deliver to the Children's Shelter each month. Indeed, your service to our guild, and especially to children in need, has been priceless and greatly appreciated.

Creative Inspiration Sewing, Quilting & Embroidery Expo

Creative Inspirations Expo will be in San Antonio at the Crossroads Mall Norris Conference Center from 9 A.M. to 6 P.M., Thursday thru Saturday, January 18-20, 2007. Creative Inspiration Expo offers shopping, seminars, workshops, and fashion presentations relating to sewing, quilting, embroidery, appliqué and more. The Quilt Guild will have a booth at the Expo and will give out information regarding the San Antonio Quilt Guild, its purpose and programs.

If any quilt member would like to help out in the booth one day for 2 to 3 hrs they will not have to pay the $8 entrance fee, they will get in for free. We hope to have 2 to 3 people manning the booth at all times if possible. Sandra Retzloff will have a sign up sheet at the November and January guild meetings for those willing to help out.

Visit www.sewingevents.com to learn more about this upcoming event.

A letter from Renee Bradley

Greetings:

First, I want all of you to know that you are truly family to me. Thank you so much for all of your monetary donations, cards, quilted gifts, and phone calls. A special thanks to Charlotte Keener for her donation of the raffle quilt. Of course now I have a picture of the quilt that I will always cherish.

It has almost been a year since I left you all in San Antonio. Your generosity brought me to Shepherd Center, which is the best spinal cord rehabilitation facility in the United States. I have come a long way from my stay at the University Hospital in San Antonio. Many of you have received detailed information from Cassandra. I wanted to tell you that I am eating every thing I want, pushing in my wheel chair and dressing myself slowly. I learned how to become independent in the Boot Camp of the Shepherd military base. Tee Hee. I'm an official chair user. Although am not comfortable in the chair and maybe that is an indication that I will be out of this thing in a year!

As far as sewing, I have an adaptively made sewing pouch to insert my foot peddle underneath my arm in order to sew. A fellow chair user, Chris, made the pouch for me. Chris sews and heard that I was a quilter and later came to see me in the hospital. Afterwards I my Recreational Therapist, Raye, practiced with me using the pouch in one-on-one sessions. It really does work you can sew with a foot peddle under your arm so maybe they should call this a "Pit Peddle". I have not had much time to sew as Jessalyn and I hang out at the gym exercising, taking care of bills, and doctor's visits. The Atlanta traffic is so heavy that this takes precise planning to get anywhere. My compute from the house to Shepherd is about 30 minutes IF we leave at the right time of day. If we leave during rush hour it may take 1 ½ and that is only if there are no accidents. Whew!

Living here with Cassandra and Mr. Rickie dog (now in doggie heaven), has been a blessing and a joy! I have created total hell and chaos in this house although. I have nicked the walls, knocked over things in my wheelchair, and put black marks on the walls, run into cabinets, broke the china tea pot, and scratched the furniture. All and all Cassandra still loves me and never complains about this. This does not mean that you will get out of inviting me to your house! No, you can not invite me over and leave me outside, just get ready. You can pad and move your furniture but I am coming in anyway.

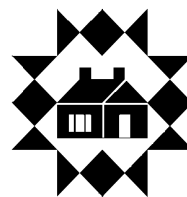

I have been able to go to cultural events like viewing the Quilts of Gee's Bend, an historical black quilt museum in Underground Atlanta, and the Atlanta Symphony. I have attended the Piedmont Park Jazz Festival and the Acworth Pioneer Days picnic and park events. Even attend the local Spinal Cord Injury Summit in downtown Atlanta for 2 ½ and stayed in the Omni hotel. All of the chair users were accommodated with very plush and adaptive rooms.

I am homeward bound on October, the 22nd, and now have so much titanium in my body that will definitely set off the airport security alarms. The titanium in my body makes me almost the "Bionic Women".

Again, thank you for all that you have done and hope to see you soon.

Blessed and loved,

Renee
