Quilt Show Boutique

For those of you who may not know, the show boutique is a consignment booth set up during out quilts shows to allow guild members to sale their quilt related items. It's an 80/20 split with guild receiving 20 percent.

For the 2009 quilt show, we had 9 members participating with more than 300 items for sale and with gross sales of a little more than $1700.

I would like to thank the 9 members and all the volunteers who signed up to work in the boutique. Without your participation, there would be no quilt show boutique.

Just a reminder you have less than 2 years to have your items ready for the 2011 boutique.

Thank you,

Janice Frankenberger

Cheers to Renee Bradley. Her quilt "Return Home" was accepted into the juried East Cobb Quilt Show in Atlanta 18-20 Sept. The 74" x 96" quilt was made from a pattern, "Fay's Favorite", using Civil War prints.

Speedy recovery wishes to Marian Burns who fractured her skull. She is out of the hospital and in rehab at Silver Creek Manor, 9014 Tinker Path, 523-2455. Visits would be appreciated.

Sincere sympathies to the families of:

- Marilyn Parsons, 76, who died 25 Sept.

A memorial is being planned for November, Porter Loring North, 495-8221.

- Kirsten (and Larry) Carpenter on the loss of her father-in-law, Thomas Carpenter, 70, 30 Sept. in Oregon. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

Peace, contentment, hope – Ellen.

QPC Challenge: Quilters' Library

If you wrote your autobiography, what would you put on the cover? What would the title be? What would make your friends or family think of you?

- a favorite quilt block - a favorite technique or style, i.e., appliqué, pieced, embroidered, other - a favorite color - do you tend to use the same colors? - a quilt block with a name that means something to/about you – i.e., Crazy Anne (just joking)

Use any technique — pieced, applique, embroidered, painted, embellished, etc.

Include your first name on either the cover or spine (stitched, written with permanent ink, painted)

A Title for your book is optional

Back cover may have a design or be left blank

Background will be black and pages will be white. (You provide the fabrics for the cover and spine in whatever colors you want.)

The block is one by Georgia Bonesteel. It is an open book standing on end with the front and back covers facing. The kit will have the pattern, fabric for the border and book pages. Also we'll include some ways to change a square design to a diamond.

Deadline: turn in blocks by or at the February 2010 meeting. Voting will occur at the March 2010 meeting.

Cost: $1.50 — to be used for prizes.

Bright Hopes News

We received 24 quilts and 7 totes at the guild meeting. Alyse Lilie from The Children's Shelter spoke about the shelter, it's history, programs and needs and about how our Bright Hopes quilts benefit the children. When a child arrives at the shelter they are given a bath, clean clothes and a quilt. The quilt stays on that child's bed while they live at the shelter and goes with them when they leave it. Please read the article about her presentation in this issue.

The kit party that followed the guild meeting was productive and fun. We created 53 kits, ate some cookies and drew for prizes. Many thanks to Ann Marie Matonak, Barbara Sumlin, Dea Jae Shore, Joan Parro Durringer, Judith Miller, Lani Nunley, Lois Beauchamp, Mary McCarthy, Mike Mitchell and Shirley Adair!

Sharon Ross, Bright Hopes Committee

San Antonio's Children's Center

Alyse Lilie, Volunteer Coordinator from The Children's Center, presented an overview of the programs sponsored by the Center. The Center has been in existence since 1901. Three areas that fall under the umbrella of the Center are placement, residential, and preventative. Residential is for children who fall into the high-risk category and are in need of immediate protection. Placement is for children who may be returned to their parent(s), placed with foster parents, and/or adopted out to caring families. Two of the preventive programs are:

- Nurse/Family Partnerships whereby a nurse is assigned to a first time mother who qualifies for Medicare. While monitoring the health of mother and infant the nurse also teaches child care and parenting skills.
- Project MAS (Mothers & Schools) whereby young mothers or soon to be mothers continue their education and learn child care and parenting skills. Day care is provided while the young mothers are in school.

All of the programs focus on the protection of the child and providing education to the mother.

The quilts provided by the guild may go to any of the programs above. Each child leaving the Center is provided a kit which includes a quilt, two books, three sets of clothes and toiletries.

The center is in need of volunteers, children's clothing, books, etc. You may contact Ms. Lilie at 212-2508 or take donations to 2939 W Woodlawn Avenue, San Antonio, Texas 78228.

Our new Bright Hopes Label. Plan to pick up kit in November. If you have some quilts to donate to Bright Hopes, pick up a few labels to sew on. (Sharon really, really doesn't want to sew labels on many quilts)

November 2009 Block Party

You had it easy in August. Now for a little challenge. Block party isn't until November so you can wait until after the quilt show. The Turkey Giblets block first appeared in Nancy Cabot's syndicated newspaper column in 1938. The design works well when stitched in two contrasting colors. Let's do browns and oranges. It is simply 8 equilateral triangles with 2 inch tips. The block is 12 inches finished. That's 12.5 inches unfinished. See Pattern on page 12.

Bring as many as you like with your name attached to each one to the November Guild meeting. All names go in the basket and the lucky winner in the drawing gets all of the blocks or a portion there of.
