President's Message

What a great way to start off the new year with 137 Guild members and 11 guests at the January meeting.

I would like to award a Calico Rose or Rosebud at every meeting but I need everyone's help. Any member of the Guild can recommend another Guild member for either award. The recommendation must be in writing, mailed, e-mailed, or give it to any Board member at the Guild meeting. The Board will review the recommendations and approve or disapprove.

The Calico Rose is given for exceptional service to the Guild. It can be awarded to a member only once a year.

The Rosebud award is given for contributions to the Guild but the recipient has not gone above and beyond the average Guild member. Just a way of saying an extra thanks for the job done.

Our biannual quilt show, A Kaleidoscope of Quilts, opens on 18 September, that's only eight months away! Ida Blankenship and her committees are hard at work making this the best show ever. I hope everyone is working on their entries and will be prepared to sign up to volunteer for the show.

As I've reminded Guild members before previous shows- no vacations (cancel that trip to France), forget the grand babies, and tell your boss you won't be in the week of 14-20 September. Volunteering is fun, you really get to know fellow Guild members, time to shop the vendors and work on the fabric stash, and help the Guild earn income to we can continue to serve and educate.

The February program will be presented by our very own, Ellen Hernandez. She will be presenting her program on Quilt History: Past, Present and Future. Ellen will be fulfilling her Ethel Howey grant obligation with this presentation

If you missed any of the workshops last year, then you missed out on some serious fun. The good news is you can start on your New Year's Resolutions right now. The March workshops will be with Dot Collins. She will be teaching a Feathered Star Wall Quilt on Friday and a machine quilting workshop on Saturday. You can preview the Feathered Star on her website at www.dotcollinsquilter.com/Workshop11.htm. The lecture on Saturday will be a trunk show with 30 quilts and 'The Stories Behind the Quilts'. Sign up sheets will be available at the February meeting or contact me by phone or email:

barefootquilter@satx.rr.com or 210-213-4360.
(Friday classes are $25.00 and Saturday classes are only $15.00. Best deal in town!)

We will be holding a Work Day in April. If you have projects that need to be basted or that you would like to ask for tips on, bring it with you and spread it out on some of the tables. We will also be having extended work days for QPC and Bright Hopes. If you sign up to work at least one hour or more, we will provide you with a sack lunch. I will have sign up sheets at the February and March meetings.

Sunshine and Shadows

Ellen Hernandez, 210-520-1335, ellenhernandez@hotmail.com

This section of the newsletter is really YOUR area to report those important life events. Please contact me with updates such as birthdays, anniversaries, graduations, births, awards, and yes, illnesses, surgeries, and deaths. Our Guild family shares in the patchwork pieces of your life, offering praise, support, and comfort.

Sunshine – Since I did not receive these this month, I am sharing two Quilting Tips. First, if you have lots of threads and scraps on the floor, try placing lint rollers over a paint roller that has an extension handle. Then you can just roll the floor clean. Secondly, if you need an excuse to eat more M&Ms, the plastic container for the minis is perfect to hold bobbins, especially if needing to transport them.

www.GSAQGpatchworkstories.com is launched, sharing YOUR quilt stories. To add your story, contact Ellen Hernandez, 520-1335, ellenhernandez@hotmail.com.

Shadows – Our dear Mona Stewart passed away Dec. 26th after a courageous battle with cancer. She was very active in the GSAQG and the Bulverde Quilt Group. She was a master quilter, winner of many ribbons, and contributed many quilts to various charities. Our deepest sympathies are extended to her family, including daughter Sherry Sorbera.

Yvonne Johnson's daughter, Terry Moss, died over New Years of unknown causes. She was 51.

Mae Lively's brother passed away the 2nd week of January in Oklahoma.

Pat Porter (the one on O'Connor Road) is recovering from December hip surgery after a fall.

Kitty Janiga is recovering from cellulitis of her foot and leg that developed after stepping on glass in late December.

Loveta Fowler is recovering from surgery on December 30th.

Joan Durringer is awaiting test results to see if she has Hepatitis C. She's been going through infertility treatments that are on hold pending the results.

Peace, contentment, hope – ellen.

- To reflect the dynamic nature of the quilter's art, our show this year will focus on overall construction and design and less on the mechanics of production. Accordingly, there will be no category differentiating professionally quilted work from others. To quote one of our past judges, "Well done is well done."

• Stationary machine: A quilt that is moved by hand under a sewing machine to do the quilting. Track Mounted: The machine is moved over the surface of the quilt to do the quilting. In the judging of these awards, both stitch production and quilting design will be considered.

• Quilters will be acknowledged on the gallery cards and in the program, but ribbons will be awarded only to the entrant, one per quilt, except where Special Awards Ribbons are given.

Dear Ms Ashley,

Please extend to each participating members of your Guild our gratitude for the quilts you have provided our gallant Soldiers. These items will be readily accepted and cherished by the recipients or their family members. When visiting the surgical operations, there were twins girls who were shivering from the cold waiting room. Each was given a quilt to keep them warm. When told they could keep them, they asked their Mother if they could and said they would share them with her and their Father when he returned from surgery. This is one of the many responses we get in distributing these gifts,

It is gifts like this that is remind to our troops and their families that their service has not gone unnoticed. It lets them know that there hard work and diligence is truly appreciated and they are in the hearts and minds of those whose freedom they protect and defend.

It is great to know that these heroes are appreciated by all as they recovery continues. These service members and their families deserve special recognition for their bravery and dedication to their country. My personal thanks and appreciation go out to all who made this possible.

Sincerely,
