Quilt Show Volunteers Needed

I know that it seems hard to believe, but our Quilt Show is in four months (Sept. 18, 19, 20). So, it is time to finish (or start) a lovely quilt for the show, and it is time to sign up to volunteer at the show. As most of you know, the Quilt Show is completely staffed by Volunteers. Without you the show cannot go on. There are many different positions to be filled. I can help you find a day and time to suit you, just stop by the Quilt Show table at the Guild meeting or call me (Janis Painter) at 688-9578.

Volunteers receive a White Glove pin and get free admission to the Quilt Show on the day that you work. I hope that every member can work at least one two-hour shift. When we all pitch in, a big job can be easy.

Thanks,

Janis Painter

Quilt Show Volunteer Coordinator

Sunshine and Shadows

Ellen Hernandez, 210-520-1335,

Memorial Day reminds us of the hardships our service members and their families endure to support our country. One of our own, Andrea Brown's son, Johnnie Schatz, is recovering from PTSD after his 3rd tour in Iraq. Currently stationed in Hawaii, his expected transfer to BAMC will be welcomed by Andrea and her mother, Joyce Eckard.

Jackie Randall has been traveling to Dallas to be with her father who is hospitalized. Please keep them in your thoughts and prayers as they make decisions about his care.

Do you have any upcoming celebrations to share, such as graduations? We're itching to hear some good news! Speaking of good news, Sherry Durringer is expecting her 6th grandchild soon from daughter, Brenda.

For those of you who 'Google', www.quiltbus.com offers an easy site to browse all sorts of quilting news from free patterns, to tips, to fabric.

Peace, contentment, hope – ellen.

- Categories Defined
- To reflect the dynamic nature of the quilter's art, our show this year will focus on overall construction and design and less on the mechanics of production. Accordingly, there will be no category differentiating professionally quilted work from others. To quote one of our past judges, "Well done is well done."

• Stationary machine: A quilt that is moved by hand under a sewing machine to do the quilting. Track Mounted: The machine is moved over the surface of the quilt to do the quilting. In the judging of these awards, both stitch production and quilting design will be considered.

• Quilters will be acknowledged on the gallery cards and in the program, but ribbons will be awarded only to the entrant, one per quilt, except where Special Awards Ribbons are given.

• Individual awards will be given for excellence in Hand Quilting, Machine Quilting (Stationary machine), and Machine Quilting (Track-mounted machine.) Those will be awarded to the quilter.

August 2009 Block Party

How many orphan blocks do you have? Let's keep them between 4" and 8" finished in size. Bring all your orphan blocks that fit in those parameters and we can have multiple winners. Bring as many as you like with your name attached to each one to the August Guild meeting. All names go in the basket and the lucky winner in the drawing gets
