President's Letter

What an INSPIRING meeting we had to start the new year! Ruth Felty presented us with lots of ideas for easy art quilts to design and stitch....we wanted to come right home and begin. Hers were the details of the Ethel Howey grant award to study, then present the guild with knowledge and inspiration. Karel Donley was awarded the 2014 grant; she will study machine quilting, then bring us the learnings.

It was exciting to introduce leaders of seven possible new BEEs for our guild. We also heard from all the leaders of existing open bees. Details (where, when, focus) were reviewed. At break-time, members were moving and buzzing as people signed up to be part of these small groups. See the list of bees in this newsletter; you, too, can still join the BEE(s) that interest you. I encourage you to join quilters in these small groups that do so much to help all of us.

Sad news was the death of our dear guild leader Larry Beauchamp, who passed away Jan. 8. Happy news is that we had 140 members present. Hooray !! 3 guests and 3 new members - Sandy Doyle, Jeannie Rush and Kaye Swanson who received the guild pins to go with their membership packet.

May this new year be a good one for you---each of you. It is YOU the members who make this such a good group. Sincerely yours,

Ida

Special Awards and Events

Charleen Carrol -winner of a Calico Rose for her photography.

GSAQG Guild Meeting Minutes January 11, 2014.

The meeting was called to order by Ida Blankenship, president. All visitors were welcomed. An announcement of the death of Larry Beauchamp and the services at the University United Methodist Church on Monday at 3:00 pm was made. The family requested that in lieu of flowers donations be made in Larry's name to Texas Kidney Foundation, organizations for breast cancer research or the guild's technology fund. No minutes to be approved. There are a number of new books available in guild library. Calico Rose was presented to Charlene Carroll for her outstanding photography at the meetings. Janet Miller presented a $1,000 check to Karel Donley as the 2014 winner of the Ethel Howey Grant. There were 140 members present.

President Pro-Tem – Judith Miller: no report.

Secretary – Sylvia Jolet: There were 5 telephone calls received for general guild information.

Treasurer – Cindy Shutt: The total guild funds is $70, 886.06. November financials were reviewed and approved.

1st VP – Special Events – Carol Bryant: Janet Miller, chair for the Winter Retreat, reported that the reservations were full, but a waiting list is very available. History indicates that a number of late cancellations are typical and others will probably be able to go at the last minute. Glenda Harris will be taking Summer Retreat reservations starting in February. Bernie Farris, 2015 Quilt Show chair, requested assistance in finding a 25,000 square foot facility for the show. Members were asked to select a project to quilt from the Auction table to complete. There are plenty "finishers" for those quilting projects.

2nd VP – Information – DeaJae Shore: Pay your dues at this meeting. Although we have had a record number of members already renew, there are still some who have not. The goal is to have the membership directory available at the February meeting.

3rd VP – Programs – Rebecca Cook: Today's program is Ruth Felty, past Ethel Howey Grant winner, with her Art of Fusing. February will be round robin of 3 member "how to" presentations. Reservations for the March Gylene Fitzgerald program begin today. Members need to pay when making their reservation. Greater attendance is our goal since many of these national teachers offer similar programs at a much higher fee in other venues. These are good bargains for our members.

5th VP – Community Reach – Sherry Durringer:

All 4th quarter volunteer hours reports will be in newsletter for members information.

4th VP – Services – Gail Dickman: The Golden Carrot award was given to Sonia Koons for her volunteer work on a Bright Hopes or Storybook or QPC project. Help is needed to return the guild meeting room back to order each month after guild meeting. ## Quilt Project Committee News (commonly called QPC)

(This committee provides members an opportunity to try new techniques or just practice what they know.)

QPC is having a "sorting and picking" party in February. While we sort through the pile of scraps. we'll be looking for special fabrics for some projects we'd like to do. This will occur in the side room during the round robin demos. One or two helpers are still needed for this.

QPC has received donations of several block of the month kits (stars, baskets, Sunbonnet Sue, etc.) which we'll be using as projects. Most of the kits are pieced, but there are a few applique kits remaining.

2.14 Pieces of the Past 46: Herrschners
Ellen Hernandez

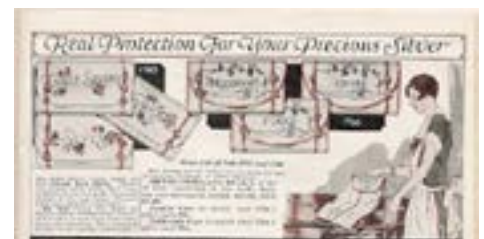

German immigrant Frederick Herrschner started selling embroidery patterns and sewing items from a street vendor cart in Chicago in 1899. His loyal customers who moved out of the area asked for items to be mailed to them, which was the beginning of the mail order catalog. DMC floss from France was a favorite item, as well as clothing and stamped and perforated patterns. The first quilt kits were introduced in 1927. From the catalog pages below, some of the popular items to embroider included birdcage covers, bridge table covers, sewing machine covers, and silverware storage cases. After Frederick's death, his son Frederick, Jr. took over the company. Over 400 quilt products were available, with the addition of leather work, beading, jewelry, doll kits and painting supplies.

In 1970, the company was purchased by Quaker Oats. Now over 110 years old, Herrschners continues to provide quality sewing notions by catalog and online at Herrschners.com, operating from Stevens Point, Wisconsin. They employ 150 workers, many of whom make suggestions for products, catalog layouts, and even complete samples for the catalog or the Wisconsin store. January is their busiest season. They also publish Cross-Stitch & Needlework, a bi-monthly magazine with designs and patterns and have a separate website yarnsale.com. Their former catalog items from Gimbel & Sons, of collectibles and gifts and Calli & Co., paper crafts, are incorporated into their main website. Herrschners sponsors the largest annual afghan competition, generating the books Herrschners Blue-Ribbon Afghans and More Herrschners Blue-Ribbon Afghans.

Side note: Frederick, Jr.'s wife, Eleanor Martin, began her own company in Illinois in 1932 manufacturing and selling hair wave attachments, cosmetics, knick-knacks, and pharmaceutical supplies. In 1933 Eleanor Martin, Inc. moved from Chicago to Elgin, Illinois, and became a needle art mail-order catalog. The president of the company was changed to Frederick in 1934. Eleanor was described as "America's leading Needlework stylist." The company ceased operations in 1938.

MISSION

The Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild (GSAQG) has established a grant in honor of long time member, Kris Thomson. ## Kris Thomson Grant

Guild members will have the opportunity to further their quilting knowledge thanks to the generosity of the family of Kris Thomson. In December 2012 Kris's family asked that memorial monies be donated to the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild and be used for a one time Grant.

In 2010 as the winner of the Ethel Howey Grant Kris attended a week long Ricky Timms workshop. This was one of her quilting highlights and her family wanted to pay it forward.

Any Guild member of more than two years may apply. Past winners of the Howey Grant are eligible. Please read the criteria and consider applying. This is a great chance to learn a new or improve upon a technique and share the knowledge with the Guild.
