President's Letter

We had fun at our Valentine's meeting...it was a sweet good time! Lots of friends talking about quilting!!! We had 137 members present, several visitors, and 6 new members -- Karen Gehle, Angela Graf, Dee Patmo, Denise Richards, Michelle Settle, and Brenda Sturm. Bonnie Hunter delighted us with her words and inspired us to make more quilts...especially how to organize and use the fabrics we already have. Her many quilts were beautiful examples. Quilters came from other towns and guilds to hear her. Those who took her workshops were very pleased. Bonnie gave us one of her books, we bought 2 others ---so 3 of her books are now in our library for you.

Setting goals as quilters is a favorite subject of mine.... very important for each of us. So from this wonderful program, I encourage you to use the inspiration to set a new goal(s). 2nd goal can be to ATTEND EVERY MEETING with a special TEACHER. There is so much to be learned. And Quilting is fun !

See you at our MARCH meeting on the 14th.

Sincerely, Ida

GSAQG Board Meeting Minutes

02/02/2015

The meeting was called to order at 3:00 pm. Those in attendance were Ida Blankenship, Karen Lambdin, Cindy Shutt, Linda Etheridge, Sherry Durringer, Dea Jae Shore, Jeana Kubik, Rebecca Cook, and Carol Bryant.

There were no corrections to the minutes, so they stand approved as presented in the newsletter.

President- Ida Blankenship announced the Calico Rose Award will be presented to Barbara Sumlin for her work with the Winter Retreat.

The Coggins Estate is still a work in progress and will be for a long time. There will be 2 tables at each meeting to sell the items.

Secretary – Karen Lambdin discussed how to refer a few phone calls made to the guild.

Treasurer – Cindy Shutt: total cash and savings - $68,187.04. The December financials were checked, approved, and delivered.

1st VP for Special Events – Carol Bryant – the Raffle quilt has been accepted into the Dallas Quilt show. There was a big sign ordered for the show that can be reused in future years. Registration is in progress for the mini retreat in March. There is a need for a chairperson for the Fall mini-retreat.

Ida is working on getting more vendors for the quilt show. She has 22 confirmed vendors, but would like to get 40. Board members were encouraged to pick up vendor business cards at other shows so that Ida can contact them. Program ads are another good source of income at the quilt show.

2nd VP for Information – Dea Jae Shore passed out new flash drives to board members. The other guild chairpersons and volunteers in need of flash drives will be getting them from Dea Jae at the meeting in February. Ida encouraged board members to add a folder to the flash drive including policies and duties that relate to the specific board position for future volunteers.

Dea Jae noted that 204 members have renewed this year. She will be sending board members a small list of members to call to encourage their renewal.

Ida discussed the possible need to set up an emergency phone chain in case of the need to cancel meetings due to bad weather or other crises. Discussion was tabled for now. Ida also asked board members to review the policies and bylaws for possible updates next year.

3rd VP for Programs – Rebecca Cook announced the Bonnie Hunter workshops are full. The meeting is likely to be full and extra chairs may need to be set up.

Rebecca discussed a financial request from a future speaker, which would be against current policy. The board is considering the request.

4th VP for Programs – Jeana Kubik received a new list of DVDs from Jackie Randall. This list is on the web page also.

5th VP for Community Outreach – Sherry Durringer announced that Jeana Kubik volunteered to quilt the KLRN donation quilt. Linda Kirk and helpers are taking the storybook quilts to schools this week. Also, Linda's Haiku project is in full swing with all of her packets checked out.

Sherry plans to write up a clear plan for the items to be donated to the Roy Maas Youth Alternative program for the new volunteer.

There was discussion about a request from one of the community outreach programs.

Final items – the cost for the new large sign for the quilt show can be prorated over the next 3 – 4 shows. The sign has no date or location on it, so it can be used in future shows. The necessity of street banners was also discussed. Facebook and newspaper ads worked well at the past quilt show.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:20 pm.

Each time you turn in a project to Bright Hopes, Storybook Quilts, Auction, Quilt Projects Committee or complete any other service to the guild, you are given chances to win this prize. (Note: be sure to sign your name on the white side of each ticket you receive! Carol Rouse would hate to draw a blank ticket or one that she can't read the name. If they are stapled together, remove the staple and sign each one.)

3.15 Pieces of the Past, 59: Martha Washington's Penn's Treaty Quilt by Ellen Hernandez

This 100" square medallion quilt of linen and cotton with penciling is attributed to Martha Washington around 1785. The quilt was passed down to Martha's niece, Frances Dandridge Henley Lear. Frances' step-granddaughter, Louisa Lear Eyre, later inherited the quilt and featured an illustration and story of it in her 1906 biography, Letters and recollections of George Washington: being letter to Tobias Lear. (Tobias tutored George Washington's children and became his private secretary and military aide.) A review of her book in The Reader described the quilt as a "variegated horror", and a "dinky historical souvenir." Not everyone agreed with this critique, and Louisa donated the quilt to the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association in 1931.

The copperplate toile print in the center was quite popular in Martha's day and was reproduced several times in browns and reds. It was copied from a 1771 Benjamin West oil painting depicting the 1683 treaty between William Penn and the Lenape Turtle Clan. A bolt of cloth is depicted in the print as part of the trade. The print was used for many household items and a 1788 advertisement by John Penn, Jr. described his items for sale as "William Penn's Treaty with Indians on cotton bed curtains and window curtains." This copperplate was used for reproduction until 1932.

GREATER SAN ANTONIO QUILT GUILD, INC.
ETHEL Y. HOWEY GRANT PROGRAM

MISSION

The Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild (GSAQG) has established a grant program in honor of a loved and esteemed founding member, Ethel Y. Howey, whose accomplishments and influence extended into the international quilt world. The grant is to encourage the pursuit of education in the study of quilt making and to recognize the importance of quilting in today’s society as an art form, as an instrument of healing, as part of our legacy, and as a common thread which binds all in friendship.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the grant program is to fund projects that will have long term impact on preserving the heritage and further the art of quilt making. The grant may be used to cover expenses such as fees (including conferences, workshops, etc.), travel, lodging, meals, materials and books. The grant(s) will be awarded annually, not to exceed $1000. The Grant Committee may divide the monies between more than one recipient. The GSAQG is not obligated to award the entire $1,000 or any part thereof, if the quality of the proposals does not merit it.

- An applicant must show evidence of an interest in continuing to improve and innovate in the field of quilt design, construction, history or technique.

- Grant recipients are ineligible to reapply for grants for three years. Grant committee members are ineligible for grants while serving on the committee.

PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

- Applications must be submitted on or before August 1 (current year), and the grant will be awarded at the following January Guild meeting.
- If the recipient fails to fulfill the requirements or is unable to attend the proposed project or program, the grant money must be returned within three (3) months of the cancellation, or on a time-line agreed to by the committee and the applicant. If an alternate applicant is available, the money may be transferred to the alternate with approval of the committee.
- Recipients must be willing and able to share with GSAQG the new skills, techniques, or information gained. This may be in the form of a presentation, a workshop or other process that disseminates the information to the members in the year following receipt of the grant. Scheduling must be coordinated with the 1st Vice President for Programs.
- If a workshop or program is being presented, at a minimum of (3) three months before the scheduled Guild workshop or program, a lesson plan and class sample will be presented to the Ethel Howey Chairperson, the 1st Vice President for Programs and one Guild member-at-large.

Library news!

2015 is off to a great start! Our February program was so interesting. Bonnie Hunter seemed to inspire everyone to go home and take a good hard look at their scrap pile! Bonnie graciously donated one of her books to our library and while she was here, I also bought two more. The following books will be added to the inventory and available at the March meeting:

String Fling Scrappy, Happy and Loving It!

Adventures with Leaders and Enders Make More Quilts in Less Time

More Adventures with Leaders and Enders

I came across several books that were donated to the library before the holidays, but somehow got buried on my desk! I found them recently, added them to the library and had them available for checkout at the February meeting. But, for those of you who missed my announcement, here is a list:

How Not To Make a Prize-Winning Quilt

Simms, Ami

History Repeated

Chutchian, Betsy

Celebrate Great Quilts! Circa 1820-1940

Bresenhan, Karey; Puentes, Nancy

America the Pride of My Heart

Wilhite, Veda

Old-Fashioned Ribbon Art

Art, Ribbon Co.

Embellishing with Anything

Love, Gladys

Copy Art for Quilters

Tourtillotte, Barb

For My Friends

Kimmel, Gerry

4" Sampler - Book 1

Kemp, Jill

Handfuls of Scraps

Sitar, Edyta

Some were checked out immediately during the meeting, but that is the beauty of a library! They will be back for another checkout.

Gracious members donated more books at the February meeting. I will have them inventoried and available at the March meeting. Many thanks to the members who come up to the table and offer books to us. I am sorry I can't mention all of you.

Lap Quilting Your Legacy Quilt

Bonesteel, Georgia

Quick Quilt Tricks

Lauder, Billie

Free-Form Embroidery

Montano, Judith Baker

Super Simple Triangles

Smith, Lynda Milligan & Nancy

Threads From the '30s

Martin, Nancy J.

Breit Quilts To Appliqué.

Englebreit, Mary

Caliente Quilts

Bianchi, Priscilla

Innovative Machine Quilting

Risinger, Hettie

Lap Quilting Primer

Bonesteel, Georgia

The American Quilt Story

Jenkins, Susan; Seward, Linda

Some of these books were donated by a non-member quilter who just didn't use her books anymore. Mrs. Mabel Turner reached out to our guild and offered the guild some books and Mary Ruth and I went out to get them after the February meeting. Mrs. Turner, at 86 and in a motorized wheelchair still had her wits about here and shared some of her quilting stories with us. Many of her books were in our library already, but we were certainly happy to visit with her.

Remember Melody Crust was at a recent meeting with fantastic quilts she embellished with beads and bangles. I was out of funds in my 2014 budget, but quickly made up for it in 2015! I have ordered her Eye Candy Quilts and Quilt Toppings. They should be in and processed into the inventory ready for the March meeting.

Ida had brought two patterns by Ricky Tims and asked I put them in the library. Since they are patterns, and we do books, I ordered two companion books by Ricky Tims to accompany the patterns: Convergence Quilts and Kool Kaleidoscope Quilts. Since we didn't have any books by Ricky, they are a great addition to the library and should be ready for checkout by the March meeting.

Happy reading!! Jeannette
