President's Letter

When have we laughed so much at a GSAQG meeting ?? Charlotte Angotti's lecture for us was presented by a delightful, insightful teacher who really could be a "stand-up comic." Her quilting stories were delightful, her quilts were inspiring. Remember this next year when the Eleanor Wright Grant program is presented.

We welcomed 9 new members –Pat Ceruti, Robin Coture, Lisa Edwards, Sabrina Fields, Margaret Garcia, Kymm Kent, Janice Schwab, Marcia Sparkman, Judie Zececk. Several of them began their membership in our guild with Charlotte Angotti's workshop. Wonderful !

July is "D-E-day"....Deadline for Entries. No matter how you feel about your quilt, every member who enters even one quilt is a winner, because you finished and entered. Remember there is a category "First Quilt" if you have never entered a formal quilt show before. I encourage every member to enter at least one.....that helps to make it "Our" show. Being a part of it ensures more fun, more success.

We understand that July's guest teacher, Melinda Bula, is also an outstanding national speaker. And you can hear her at our meeting. See you there !!

Sincerely, Ida

Calico Rose

Joyce Howison recieved a calico rose for her hard work with the sale of the estate of Lark Coggins.

GSAQG Guild Meeting Minutes

June 13, 2015

The meeting commenced at 10:03 am. Ida Blankenship, President, welcomed guests, new members, and returning members.

Ida requested a show of hands of members who had read the newsletter.

There were no corrections to the minutes of the May meeting, so the minutes stand approved as presented.

Calico Rose – awarded to Joyce Howison for her work with the Coggins Estate.

Treasurer – Reported in absentia- a balance of $84,665.73.

1st VP for Special Events - Carol Bryant

The quilt show is 12 weeks away. Bernie Ferris reported only 42 entries have been submitted, and she is hoping for 300 entries. Entries are due in July. See the website for forms. There is also information about the quilt show boutique on the website. Bernie encouraged members to get their fabric challenges done for the show. Donations are needed for the silent auction. Bernie cannot make it to the next two meetings, but Carol Bryant will fill in for her.

Ida, as Vendor Chair, has 45 confirmed vendors for the show. She encouraged members to help sell program ads to small businesses. In the past the ads paid for the program printing costs.

2016 Auction – Mary McCarthy needs a co-chairman and a storage committee (someone with a pet-free, smoke-free area in their home to store auction quilts).

Mary announced a meeting at the break for interested volunteers. She will start looking for quilters for auction quilts after the quilt show.

Summer Retreat starts tomorrow. There is one opening.

2nd VP for Information – Dea Jae Shore announced that paid newsletter advertisements also go on the Power Point presentation that runs during the meeting, so please advertise your business here.

Entry forms and rules for the quilt show are on the website.

3rd VP for Programs – Rebecca Cook discussed the annual June free workshops. Today's workshop with Charlotte Angotti costs $168 at the Houston Quilt Festival. But today, a limited number of members can take this class free thanks to a grant.

Next month's speaker and workshop is with Melinda Bula. She will have fabric kits available at the workshop.

The September program is with Shelly Ziegert and will discuss the making of the documentary "Why Quilts Matter". There will be a discussion group on Saturday afternoon at a cost of $5.

In August, Ida will do a presentation on quilt labels.

4th VP for Services – Jeana Kubik

The Golden Carrot was awarded to Evelyn Santoni. This award goes to a name drawn from those who performed a service for the guild this month.

Jackie Randall reminded members to turn in their DVDs.

Jeanette Jay has 30 new books in the library, they are listed in the newsletter.

The QPC has a new applique' project starting.

5th VP for Community Outreach – Sherry Durringer

Still looking for someone with regular attendance and computer skills to take photos at the guild meeting. You should be able to manipulate the files to rename, resize, crop and correct color. Also be able to zip files for emailing. I am willing to train someone who is interested. Contact Dea Jae.

Golden Carrot Winner: Evelyn Santoni

Each time you turn in a project to Bright Hopes, Storybook Quilts, Auction, Quilt Projects Committee or complete any other service to the guild, you are given chances to win this prize.

(Note: be sure to sign your name on the white side of each ticket you receive! I'd hate to draw a blank ticket or one that I can't read the Many kits are being checked out and many are being returned completed. Several people have expressed an interest in joining the QPC committee. Almost any skill can bring a welcomed contribution to the group.

Library News

Again, my table was flooded with great donations from our members, too many to name!! Thank you, all. I went thru the books, and as policy, passed most of the donations on to the magazine table for them to sell or dispose of. We had many in our library already, or they were found to not be what we are looking for. However, I did put the books listed below in the database and they will be available for checkout at the July meeting.

Orphan Blocks for Orphans

This non-profit family living unit is for special needs children and vulnerable mothers. The blocks can be any pattern or color (but no US flags or Halloween fabric; no fat batts.) You can use orphan or UFO blocks and add on fabric until they measure 12-1/2". It will take 20 blocks for each quilt which will be finished by Ellen in quilt-as-you-go style.

7.15 Pieces of the Past, 63: 1978 Quilt Basket Stamps, by Ellen Hernandez

An 1875 Basket quilt at Hurrah Antiques of New York was the inspiration for artist Christopher Pullman's American Folk Art stamps. The first-day issue cancellation of the 13 cent stamps in 1978 took place in Charleston, WV at the request of WV Sen. Jennings Randolph, chair of the Postal and Civil Service Commission. Then governor of WV, John Rockefeller IV and wife Sharon were sponsors of the Mountain Artisans quiltmaking co-op which helped organize the event, displaying 45 WV Basket or Postage Stamp quilts and giving quilting demonstrations.

Fred Collins, named Cachetmaker of the Half-Century 1951-2000 by the American First Day Cover (FDC) Society, hand painted a watercolor cachet for Quiltmaking (a cachet is a miniature work of art on the face of an envelope.) Only 280 were made and if found today sell for about $500+ each. Those FDC with a special WV map Philatelic Center Stamp, of which only 48 exist, currently sell for about $1,600. Collins planned this double stamping for his first cover to honor not only WV but NY as well - because the original quilt was housed there. Other companies produced cachet FDC for this basket stamp series, including Colorano "Silk", ArtCraft, Artmaster, and Fleetwood.

The 13 cent Basket stamp was not used for long because only two months later the USPS raised the standard postage rate to 15 cents. You can still buy sheets and sets of these stamps through philatelic groups and auctions.

GREATER SAN ANTONIO QUILT GUILD, INC.
ETHEL Y. HOWEY GRANT PROGRAM

MISSION

The Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild (GSAQG) has established a grant program in honor of a loved and esteemed founding member, Ethel Y. Howey, whose accomplishments and influence extended into the international quilt world. The grant is to encourage the pursuit of education in the study of quilt making and to recognize the importance of quilting in today's society as an art form, as an instrument of healing, as part of our legacy, and as a common thread which binds all in friendship.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the grant program is to fund projects that will have long term impact on preserving the heritage and further the art of quilt making. The grant may be used to cover expenses such as fees (including conferences, workshops, etc.), travel, lodging, meals, materials and books. The grant(s) will be awarded annually, not to exceed $1000. The Grant Committee may divide the monies between more than one recipient. The GSAQG is not obligated to award the entire $1,000 or any part thereof, if the quality of the proposals does not merit it.

- Grant recipients are ineligible to reapply for grants for three years. Grant committee members are ineligible for grants while serving on the committee.

PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

- Applications must be submitted on or before August 1 (current year), and the grant will be awarded at the following January Guild meeting.
- If the recipient fails to fulfill the requirements or is unable to attend the proposed project or program, the grant money must be returned within three (3) months of the cancellation, or on a time-line agreed to by the committee and the applicant. If an alternate applicant is available, the money may be transferred to the alternate with approval of the committee.
- Recipients must be willing and able to share with GSAQG the new skills, techniques, or information gained. This may be in the form of a presentation, a workshop or other process that disseminates the information to the members in the year following receipt of the grant. Scheduling must be coordinated with the 1st Vice President for Programs.
- If a workshop or program is being presented, at a minimum of (3) three months before the scheduled Guild workshop or program, a lesson plan and class sample will be presented to the Ethel Howey Chairperson, the 1st Vice President for Programs and one Guild member-at-large.
