President's Letter

October's meeting was an interesting combination of guild activities. Our Auction Sept. 17 was great! Mary McCarthy reported net profit of $8000. YEA!!!!!! Many thanks to Mary and all the members who helped with this event. It was an exciting time for us. We awarded a Calico Rose to Mary for her Leadership of the Auction. A Calico Rosebud went to Mary Ruth Flores for her loving diligence in the friendship quilt for Carol Rouse that was presented at the Auction.

We had 137 members present, including 3 new members -- Lynn Girard, Adelina Rodriquez, and Alice Cantu --who received guild pins. I welcome them with the hope that each finds here new friends, new ideas, and quilting inspirations.

Three workshops were taught by our own skilled members - great fun and learning. Thanks to all who taught and those who participated.

November means Election time. Please vote. Our national and local races are important; your vote counts. Our Guild election is also in November; we need your vote also, in person, please.

Sincerely, Ida

2016 Program Notes

NOVEMBER. The program will be about our own Storybooks and Quilts To Go Committee by Linda Kirk.

After the Guild meeting we'll need some help cutting Guild fabric into jelly rolls and charms. Bring your rotary cutter, we'll have Guild mats and rulers. You can bring your machine and work on your own project. Bring your lunch, cut, sew and visit.

December. Holiday meeting. Secret Sisters will meet at 1000. The Guild gathering will start at 1100 with a pot luck lunch, sign up in November. We'll do a Show and Tell of your favorite Christmas quilt, one quilt per person.

January. Kathy Kansier national teacher, appraiser, and judge from Missouri will be our guest teacher. Friday's class will be Quilts with Great Edges, learn a multitude of techniques for finishing the edge of your quilt. Sewing machine with walking foot if available. Class $35. plus kit fee of $50. payable to the teacher. In Saturday's class, Simply Crazy, you will fuses pieces of fabric and then use the decorative stitches on your machine to embellish. Class $25. plus kit

5th VP – Pat Alva

Secretary – Carolyn Komada

New Business – the budget was discussed; it was moved and seconded to put the budget in the newsletter.

There was discussion regarding an Online Quilt Auction.

The meeting was adjourned at 5 pm.

Respectfully submitted, Karen Lambdin, Secretary

GSAQG Guild Meeting Minutes

October 8, 2016

Ida opened the meeting at 10:04 am with a greeting to members and visitors.

A Calico Rose was awarded to Mary McCarthy for her work on the auction. A Calico Rosebud was awarded to Mary Ruth Flores for coordinating the making of a quilt for Carol Rouse.

The September minutes were approved as presented in the newsletter.

President Pro Tem – Virginia Oehlke. There is lots of free fabric on the back table from the storage unit clean-out.

Treasurer – Cindy Shutt (absent). Cash and savings balance of $48,986.45. The budget will be in this month's newsletter and will be voted on at next month's meeting.

1st VP for Special Events – Elaine Staller (absent). Mary McCarthy reported that the profit from the auction was $8040.45. The winner for selling tickets to the auction was Linda Kirk, who received a lovely bluebonnet pillow. Ideas for the next auction are being solicited.

Sandra Lowell needs 6 more people for the Houston bus trip to make.

Joyce Howison thanked the members who worked on the raffle quilt and tickets are now available.

Holly Nelson has challenge fabric for sale.

Winter retreat – sign up for Secret sisters today.

2nd VP for Information – Dea Jae Shore asked members to check for the newsletter on the website as she had trouble with the last email blast. There are 701 Facebook "Likes".

3rd VP for Programs – Janet Miller will be bringing more fabric from storage to the free table next month.

Attendees of the September Mini- retreat should see Janet for a partial refund.

There are 3 openings in next Saturday's dyeing class.

The November program will be a Storybook presentation by Linda Kirk. After the program, members are asked to bring a rotary cutter to help turn yardage into jelly rolls and charm squares. Also, members can bring a sewing machine or project to work on until 5 that day.

December will be a Holiday Party potluck that will begin at 11 am with a Christmas Bring and Brag. The Secret sister party will be at 10 am, before the potluck.

In January, the speaker will be Kathy Kansier; and this will be the Eleanor Wright workshop for 2017. Sign-ups begin at today's meeting.

February program is a guild garage sale of quilting/ sewing items. Sign up for a table now.

4th VP for Services – Jeana Kubik. The Golden Carrot was awarded to Shirley Adair. Magazine sales were over $100. QPC has a new project for this month.

Library – Janet Craig will be putting all of the fiction in the garage sale. There will be no library services in November or December.

5th VP for Community Outreach – Sherry Durringer reported 1600 hours of volunteer service in the 3rd quarter. The ITC Hand quilting bee is looking for new hand quilters.

Storybooks had a new quilt donated today. They are looking for committee members.

QSOS – Quilters Save our Stories – is looking for transcribers. See Mary McCarthy or Ellen Hernandez.

Bright Hopes committee is at a crisis point with no one to chair the committee next year. Please consider volunteering for this important position.

Parliamentarian – Linda Ethridge presented the nominees for officers to be voted on next month.

President – Mary McCarthy

2nd VP – Ina Ramirez

4th VP – Letty Zavala

5th VP – Pat Alva

Secretary – Carolyn Komada

Members were asked for other nominations for officers, but since there were none, the nominations officially closed, to be printed in the newsletter before the November business meeting.

Ida welcomed three new members with a guild pin.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:43 am.

Respectfully submitted, Karen Lambdin,
Secretary

A note from Carol Rouse: 'A big Thank You to all who had a hand in making the signature quilt for me. It was a total surprise and I love it. Every time I examine it I find names I hadn't seen before. I think of you often – the quilt will be an even bigger reminder of some great times. Thanks again.'

Sincere sympathies to Cindy Shutt on the loss of her husband, Jim, on September 28th. Donations may be made in honor of him to the SA

Garden Railroad Engineers Society, Boy Scouts of America, or the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity.

And sympathies to Nancy Klaerner on the loss of her husband, William Klaerner, COL USAF RET on September 22. Donations may be made in honor of him to the SA A&M Club Scholarship Fund, 6205 West Ave, SA, 78213.

11.16 Pieces of the Past, 79. Quilts of Valor, by Ellen Hernandez

The national non-profit Quilts of Valor (QOV) Foundation was sparked by Catherine Roberts' vivid dream in 2003 while her son was deployed in Iraq. She dreamed he was wrapped in a quilt which gave him a sense of hope in the middle of combat. Catherine quickly gathered a volunteer team to put her dream into action. She wrote a mission statement for her 'Quilts for Soldiers' which became 'Quilts of Valor' (to include all service branches): 'to cover service members and veterans touched by war with comforting and healing Quilts of Valor.' She expected her volunteers to construct quality quilts that were machine or hand quilted, and were presented in an honorable way. The first quilt was given Nov 2003 at Walter Reed to a wounded soldier from the Iraq conflict.

There are now volunteer coordinators in every state, including DC. Over 146,000 QOV have been awarded. QOV has a website, an online newsletter, free patterns, and a request form for potential quilt recipients.

Former US Navy WAVE Dorthea Eldridge, 92, who served in Italy during WWII not only received a QOV, she made one for another female veteran. Eldridge wanted to enlist after seeing 'Uncle Sam wants YOU' posters but her mother wouldn't allow it. She had to wait until she turned 21 in 1944. In November 2015 Eldridge presented a QOV she made to Linda Phillips, the 50th female pilot/instructor ever to serve in the USAF. Phillips was the first female KC135 instructor pilot and served during Desert Shield (while 8 months pregnant.)

One special QOV honored Military Working Dogs and Handlers. Eleanor Frick located a feature fabric honoring military service dogs and used it to make a quilt for Dan Hartley, a Handler in Iraq in 2003. His dog, Cody, worked in temperatures up to 140 degrees and his paws were often burned from walking in the extreme heat.

QOV groups are not only in the US. There are Quilts of Valour Australia, United Kingdom, and Canada. The Canadian Society started in 2006 and have awarded over 7,000 quilts. They present quilts to male and female veterans who served in WWII, Asia, and the Middle East. Victoria Coulter received a quilt on her 102nd birthday. Serving in the royal Canadian Air Force during WWII, Coulter decoded messages from the Japanese and relayed them to England.

Marianne Fons (of Fons and Porter) is a supporter of QOV and was responsible for encouraging nine fabric companies to design QOV fabrics in 2010. Fons presented the 100,000th QOV to Petty Officer Shannon Shepard, USN, at a special ceremony at Walter Reed in 2014.

It's estimated that there are 5 million combat veterans in the US and over 21 million veterans in general. Find out how you can help QOV at www.qovf.org.

Programs

fee of $20. payable to the teacher. Kathy has been designated the Guild's Eleanor Wright Grant teacher, each attendee will receive a partial refund of class registration fees.

February. Guild Garage Sale. A table will cost $5.00. ONLY sewing/thread craft items NOT your kitchen cupboard stuff.

If you want to sign up for a class and can't make the meeting, contact Janet Miller, 3rd VP for Programs, 210 492-7684 or jjmiller@satx.rr.com.

After 2016 Auction and Looking Forward

Silent Auction took in $804 while the main auction had $13,015 in sales. Tickets brought in a further $993. After expenses the profit to the guild totaled $8,040.45. For comparison the 2014 auction ended with a gain of $10,952.86 while the 2012 auction totaled $6,226.65.

Now the 2018 auction is in need of a chair. If you think it is way out of your league, please think again. Acting as chair is not all that different from planning a large family get together. It's a bit like hosting the family for Thanksgiving; you are responsible for the turkey but others bring the dressing, the salad, the rolls, the pies, etc. And somehow it all comes together and everyone enjoys themselves. Don't underestimate your competence. Step up!

As chair you get to choose the venue and the kind of auction you'd like to see. Here? There? Luncheon? No luncheon? Entertainment? And a notion tickling the board's fancy at the moment is the possibility of an online auction. Just think of that!

The 2016 auction came together thanks to the support I had from some wonderful quilters. I owe these women immense thanks:

Rebecca Cook who showed me how to set up an inventory system which I did my best to follow
Linda Ethridge the immediate past auction chair who kindly showed me how much I didn't know and gladly gave me guidance
Ida Blankenship Kujawski who took time from her wedding planning, selling her house and its contents and consolidating two households to attend meetings at Jim's and lend her observations from years of guild participation (talk about multi-tasking!)

Sylvia Jolet who was such a stalwart, willing to boldly go where she had never been before (to the printers :^)

Elaine Staller the board member for auction who excelled at ticket sales and spreading the word
Cindy Shutt who kept the finances - and me - in order

Sandra Lowell who represented the baggers and shared her recommendations

Barbara Sumlin who had her crew willing and waiting to hang the quilts

Carol Bryant who acted as shepherdess for the quilt holders

Shirley Adair, Andrea Brown and Glenda Harris who did their darndest to control things at the table at guild meetings

Gail Dickman and the members of the Finishing Committee who kept me supplied with quilt tops (with enough left over to jumpstart the next auction)

Cathy Baisley and Jean Kubik who saw to it that many, many quilt tops got quilted

Everyone else - so many! - who donated time and talent for the sake of seeing the auction be a success

Thank you, thank you, thank you. – Mary McCarthy

New Members

Library

Thanks to all the Guild membership for the book suggestions that they would like to see added to our library. Suggestions for books on new techniques, Teachers, patterns were gratefully received. I will be shopping at the International Quilt Festival for new additions.

Donations continue to come into the Library. The policy is that all books will be evaluated against the current collection. Duplications of books or duplications of techniques will go to the sale table. New books will be listed and added to the collections so check back.

Remember due to space considerations in the storage facility Quilting Fiction (Mysteries) are being pulled from the collection. These will be sold in February at the fund raiser. These will be a bargain so come and shop!

I need to announce that the Library will be closed for the November meeting due to my travel out of town. All books that are out will be due in January. Think about thinning out your stash before you get all the new material from the holiday gifts. Think about planning the new projects for the New Year!

Remember that you can see details of the Library at the Guild's page at <http://www.sanantonioquilt.org/pages/books.html>

There is a link in the Services tab of our website.

You can e-mail me at jncraig@airmail.net for suggestions on book purchases or requests to bring specific books to meetings. My thanks for your support.

Happy reading,
Janet N. Craig

Missing Quilt Top

This top was taken home by someone to quilt before the auction. If it was you please let Mary McCarthy know and bring it back either quilted or not.

Golden Carrot Winner: Shirley Adair

We appreciate everyone's help and support. Our special Thanks! to Susan Linville for hand piecing together all of our Texas Tiles blocks, into a large top.

After the Nov. Guild meeting, please stick around and help us cut fabric into strips. You might get to see products used such as the Accuquilt. Bring a sharp rotary cutter, please. These strips will become Jelly Rolls, and you will see them again at the Dec. pot luck.

Each time you turn in a project to Bright Hopes, Storybook Quilts, Auction, Quilt Projects Committee or complete any other service to the guild, you are given chances to win this prize. (Note: be sure to sign your name on the white side of each ticket you receive! I'd hate to draw a blank ticket or one that I can't read the name. If they are stapled together, remove the staple and sign each one.)

 Secret Pals 2017 *****

Are you ready for a brand new year? And a brand new secret pal? We are glad you will be joining us for a year of fun and excitement! Let get started with a few things to know:

1. You must be a paid member for 2017.
2. Please try to remember your pal every month. This will make them feel appreciated and bring out the child in each of us when we receive a surprise.
3. If you decide to bring a perishable gift (food, plant, etc) please be sure the recipient will be attending that month – have a sneaky friend confirm it for you.
4. Please arrange for someone to pick up your gift if you will not make a meeting. I do not intend to keep the packages from month to month.
5. If you have not received a gift for 2 months in a row, please let me know. I want to make sure everything is ok with your secret pal. We understand that things come up, but we want to make sure that all participants enjoy the activity.
