November Program

"War & Pieces"

by
Ellen Hernandez

Remember to bring to the meeting

- Name tag (wear it)
- Library books, & DVD's
- QPC projects
- Bright Hopes quilts
- Smiles for your friends

I confess, the most difficult thing about serving as your President is coming up with a letter every month. Oh, sometimes there is an event to promote or a point to be made, but more often, I sit at the keyboard on the Sunday after our meeting with not a thought in my head. (Which isn't that far off from normal, eh?) So with that said, I'll revisit a former theme.

"A friend may be waiting behind a stranger's face." – Maya Angelou
Have you made any new acquaintances within the guild this year? Have you introduced yourself to a new member or two? It's very easy to stay near old friends at the guild meetings; we all have things to catch up on. However, it behooves us to remember what it felt like to be fresh in the doors, confronted by all the activities and chatter, dismayed by the seemingly closed groups, feeling like a lost sheep and yearning for someone to notice you. If you have been in the guild for a few years, please, take the time to extend your hand in friendship.

Are you new to the guild? Have you taken up your courage and introduced yourself to other members? Have you volunteered to contribute to guild activities? Don't just stand there, giving in to inertia! Get involved with a bee, attend a workshop, sign up for a retreat. Come to the holiday luncheon. There will be a guild workday in May which provides an excellent opportunity to make friends. Be ready with a smile. Your new friends are waiting!

I'll sign off now with this from Connie Stevens: "Nothing you wear is more important than your smile." --- Mary

The Golden Carrot award went to Yvonne Speer. Congrats Yvonne, and much thanks for your continued support of QPC, and our Guild.

New members who joined at the Show in September and are welcomed (12!): Lucinda Agueros, Donna Anderson, Stephanie Baxter, Rebecca Cavillo, Helen Coignet, Rose Danielson, Barbara Francis, Patricia Gaffney, Patti Heil, Karen Morello, Barb Shrout, and Susanne Thompson.

Joining the guild at the October meeting was Frances Contreras.

Program Notes

November: The Guild will be honoring our own member/ Veterans, several will be presented with a Quilt of Honor. Ellen Hernandez will present a program, War and Pieces. In the afternoon we'll have two classes on quick gifts for the Holidays. Cost $10.00. Pinecone Ornament with Janice Frankenberger, kit fee $5.00 or Project Bag with Carole Woods, kit fee $4.00. I have openings in both classes, call or email to sign up.

December: Guild Holiday Luncheon and Secret Sister Revel. The secret Sister Revel will start at 9 am. Guild luncheon will start at 11 am. Ham, shrimp and beverages provided. Please bring a side dish, salad, or dessert with serving utensil labeled with your name. Stop by the program table at the November meeting to volunteer for various jobs.

January: Program will be, "I Really Have Gotten Good at Matching Seams". Share how you got started quilting, first class and your first quilt. Bring your lunch, latest project and spend the afternoon sewing, sharing, or maybe just some down time after the Holidays.

If you want to sign up for a class and can't make the meeting, contact Janet Miller, 3rd VP for Programs, 210 492-7684 or jjmiller@satx.rr.com.

All guild members may advertise

Texan Diane Rose has a vision to motivate others to achieve their true potential. Living with vision impairment from birth, Diane was completely blinded after an accident in 1984. She began quilting in 1998 and set a goal to make 500 quilts in 10 years. She is now working towards her 1,000th quilt. She credits God to supplying her with this talent and is often found travelling around the world sharing her motivational story.

Many wonder how Diane can quilt and applique so well. She says she can feel where the stitch is because the applique has a raised edge. She often uses AccuCut shapes, but also creates her own designs. Her work is done by machine and by hand. A friend sometimes helps her select colors and patterns. She makes quilts for special people like President George W. Bush, Prince William and Kate, and her favorite country western singers. Custom quilts of all sizes from throw to king may be requested at her website, www.theamazingquilter.com. She appreciates and often relies on donations of money and sewing supplies, and has a wish list on her site.

Diane does not consider herself handicapped, but she does feel occasionally inconvenienced. Growing up in Michigan, her parents disowned her. Undeterred, she went on to graduate with honors from high school and moved to Nashville. There she worked as a journalist and tour guide (really) and became friends with many at the Grand Ole Opry. Quilting gave her independence and a sense of accomplishment. She travels without a cane or dog, cooks – and even wrote a cookbook, and makes ceramics. Her personality is bubbly and upbeat, always smiling. She has been featured in many newspapers and interviewed on numerous television shows, including the Texas Country Reporter.

In 2009 Diane received the Barbara Jordan Media Achievement Disability Award. She was appointed by Texas Governor Abbott as one of six to the Governor's Committee on People with Disabilities. Every hundredth quilt goes out for special displays such as the 600th Gallery of Presidents quilt and the 700th I Pledge Allegiance to the Flag quilt. Diane's message: "If you want to do something, don't let anybody tell you you can't."

GSAQG Board Meeting Minutes, Oct. 2, 2017

Mary McCarthy, President, called the meeting to order at 2:30 pm. In attendance were Elaine Staller, Ina Ramirez, Janet Letty Zavala, Patricia Alva, Cindy Shutt, Sylvia Jolet, and Lyn Komada. Dea Jae Shore attended.

A preliminary budget will be emailed out to the board for review.

A motion was made to approve the September board meeting minutes; the motion was seconded, and the motion carried.

A motion was made to give a calico rose to Carol Bryant at the October meeting for her work on the quilt show; the motion was seconded, and the motion carried.

Dea Jae Shore recommended that the guild purchase a new laptop to replace the old one the treasurer is currently using as Chromebooks for taking credit card orders.

A motion was made that the Guild purchase a laptop and two Chromebooks to be used by the Treasurer and member committee on designated activities; the motion was seconded, and the motion carried.

The Buda Bee will be visiting at the October guild meeting with their raffle quilt.

1st VP for Special Events – Elaine Staller.

- Fall mini-retreat, Oct 20-21. Chairperson Beatrix Shell reports that the retreat is full.
- Winter retreat, Jan 19-21. Chairperson Karel Donley reports that the retreat is full with a waiting list.
- Houston Bus Trip. Organizer Sandra Lowell reports that only one bus will be taken to Houston in order to make it self-supporting.
- Quilt Auction 2018. Chairperson Jean Hardies has been holding committee meetings prior to guild meetings to get out QPFC projects at guild meetings for completion. She reports having 4 completed quilts and several small items for silent auction. There are 5 quilts out for finishing. A poster advertising the auction was on display at the quilt show.
- Quilt Show 2017. Chairperson Carol Bryant will hold the show recap on 10/13, so a full report is pending. She reports we are now large enough (in terms of number of quilts and prize money) to be considered a regional show. Carol has the financial information from the show. Volunteer hours for the week of the show alone totaled 1060. Feedback comments were very positive, citing such things as great lighting, wide aisles, variety of vendors, demonstrated quality and variety of quilts on display. Carol suggests extending future show hours through Sunday to allow more people to attend.

2nd VP for Information – Ina Ramirez.

- Quilt show stuff advertising will be removed from the website and winners will be listed.

3rd VP for Programs – Janet Miller.

- Upcoming activities were discussed.

5th VP for Services – Pat Alva.

- Quarterly reports are being collected from committee chairs.

Treasurer – Cindy Shutt.

- Reported $68,722.73 total cash and savings on hand as of 30 September.
- Another 20k CD will be purchased so the guild will have a CD maturing in both Spring and Fall.
- Preliminary P&L financial statement figures for 2017 Quilt Show were discussed, as well as the work that was done on the September P&L statement.
- Quilt show question that needs follow-up – Will we get reimbursed for the $95 in postage that was paid for the Challenge quilts that never showed up?
- Four king size batts were donated to the guild by Hobbs. Three will go to Jean Hardies for auction quilts and one will go to the 2019 Quilt Show raffle quilt.

Parliamentarian – Sylvia Jolet.

The four candidates for the 2017 election are as follows:

- President Pro Tem: Dea Jae Shore
- 1st Vice President for Special Events: Elaine Staller

NEW MEMBER MENTORS

Joining a new group takes a lot of courage. A mentor can make one feel part of the group. The assignment would be for 3-6 months. Sitting with the new member is the initial step, but you also would need to introduce new member to others, explore interests and just be a friend. If you attend most meetings and can do this, please contact Kitty Janiga, Sandra Lowell or Lani Nunley. Please email Kitty at kittyandernie@earthlink.net or call her at 210-710-1909

Hello fellow quilters!

Bright Hopes needs you to craft a twin sized quilt for the battered Women's Shelter, Seton House, St. Paul's and others to be named later. Maybe you can grab a friend and work on it together! If you can't manage to complete a twin sized quilt, a finished throw or youth-sized quilt will also be acceptable.

Our present inventory is overrun with small quilts and quilt tops, so if you could finish one of those, just let Yaya know and she will fix you right up. We will try to provide batting for the quilts as indicated in the table below, so please adhere to the standard sizes listed. Twin quilts will have priority. If you have any batting you are not going to use, donating large sizes of batting would be most welcomed! Because of storage space, we cannot accept quilt tops at this time. Please finish quilts prior to turning them into Bright Hopes. We hope this does not cause you any problem.

Thank you, for all that you do! Because of you, the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild has a reputation for outstanding community involvement. Let us keep that giving spirit going. Yaya Walrafen, Bright Hopes Committee Chairman

Fabric Request for the 2019 Show

The 2019 raffle quilt will be Delectable Stars and appliqued flowers. I have gone thru the Guild fabric but I still need fabric. The quilt requires 20 fat quarters of bright fabric, yellow, orange, red, green, blue, turquoise, solid or reads as solid. So if you have a fat quarter of bright fabric just sitting around please consider donating to the 2019 raffle quilt. Background will be black. Please drop off the fat quarter at the Program table at the November Guild meeting or email and I'll come pick it up.

Thanks so very much.
Janet Miller, 2019 Quilt Show Chair, jjmiller@satx.rr.com or 210 492-7684.

1000's of Distinctive Quilting Designs
 available as paper and digital pantographs, and stencils

All enjoyed our 2017 Quilt Show "Salute to Texas"! Comments received by visitors to the show, our vendors and all members of our Guild have been nothing but positive. It truly was an awesome and beautiful show. The quilts were exceptional- great variety, colorful, superb workmanship and creativity. Everyone really stepped outside their comfort zone! We also achieved two of my personal goals for the show: we had more than 2000 people attend the show and we had more than 300 quilts entered into the show. I have been told that we now qualify as a regional show, having grown from a "local" status.

This is the first year we had donating sponsors. A huge Thank You goes out to our five sponsors: Sew Special Quilts (Diamond Sponsor), who awarded $500 to Theresa Fetch for Best in Show. Platinum on Wall Street (Gold Sponsor) for giving each of the 20 Blue Ribbon Category winners $50 each. AllBrands (Silver Sponsor) for awarding Karen Lambdin $350 for Best Overall Quilting. Hobbs Bonded Fibers (Bronze Sponsor) for awarding Sherry Sorbera $250 for Best Theme Quilt. In addition, Suzy Q Quilts (Bronze Sponsor) for awarding Karen Nanos $250 for Best Use of Color. A great round of applause to all of these very talented quilters.

In total, we had 60 members enter quilts into the show! Wow, that is great representation...and of those 60, 31 won a total of 58 awards! Great Job!!

I am happy to report that our Raffle Quilt will reside in Texas! Jinnibell Denham from Llano won the Raffle Quilt and has already arranged for a special place to hang the quilt in her home. She is very active in her local group, who donate many quilts to Quilts of Valor, and we understand that Jill is the most prolific quilter in the group. Congratulations, Jinn...enjoy your quilt. The quilt certainly could not have found a better "home".

Moreover, we are so proud that Viewer's Choice was awarded to Marilyn Bellows. Her very beautiful quilt, "Monde des Fleurs" was certainly deserving! This quilt also received the Blue Ribbon in the Small Applique category. We know that Marilyn is smiling down on everyone and that her brother could not be more proud of his very talented sister.

A show of this status could never have taken place without the hard work and dedication of each of our 21 committee chairs and all of our volunteers. The show was every minute of two years in the making! We are so privileged to have such a strong and dedicated membership! It was my great honor to serve as your 2017 Quilt Show Chairman.

Thank you!

Carol Bryant

GSAQG 2017 Quilt Show Chairman

We are having technical difficulties with our Bring and Brag items.

Please be patient and we will post the wonderful items on the website as soon as possible.

Website address is:

Click on the services drop down menu and then on the Bring and Brag link once we resolve the issue.

2018 Auction News

The Auction will be held at the La Quinta on the access road to IH 10, on September 15, 2018.

We currently have 4 completed quilts, 1 table runner, and 17 items for the silent auction including lanyards, hot pads, sewing kits and tablet covers.

Please see Jean Hardies at the Auction table during GSAQG meetings. We need you help to have a great auction.
