President's Letter

Is everybody happy? I hope you are all staying well and keeping busy. There has been no news from Covenant Presbyterian regarding the commencing of monthly meetings. As the majority of our members fall into the most susceptible category, I don't foresee a large gathering any time soon. There will be an e-blast when good news arrives.

Have you looked into Zoom? The board has been using it to meet monthly. The possibility of having guest speakers via this method is being investigated. It may even be that our guild meetings could take place this way. But I know not everyone has access to computers or desires to use the platform. We'll see.

There is a fine bring and brag of quarantine quilts available for viewing thanks to Dea Jae's wizardry. If you have photos to share contact her about posting them for all to see. There should be an avalanche after all this "free time".

Stay connected with your quilting buddies and be safe. Until we meet again-- Mary

Thank you Austin ISD for thinking of us!

Dear Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild,

Please accept the enclosed donation in memory of Marjorie Polasek from the members of the Austin ISD MIS department where her daughter Judy Seiffert is a valued member of my team.

Sincerely,

Daniel English

Now to Him Who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think...

6.2020 Pieces of the Past, 122: Project Linus, by Ellen Hernandez

Karen Loucks was inspired in 1995 by an article in a Sunday newspaper titled “Joy to the World.” The story, written by Pulitzer Prize winning photo-journalist, Eddie Adams, described a California three-year-old girl diagnosed with leukemia. The girl’s mother said a special blankie had brought comfort to her throughout her many hospitalizations and treatments. As a new crocheter, Loucks thought she and her friends could provide hand-crafted security blankets for Denver’s Rocky Mountain Children’s Cancer Center, and that was the beginning of Project Linus, named after the comic strip character in Peanuts. Now with over 300 chapters, Project Linus has provided almost eight million quilted, crocheted, or knitted blankets to ill and traumatized children around the world. Volunteers are nicknamed blanketeers and range from individuals to groups of women inmates.

Loucks has been a Firefighter, EMT, Healthcare Provider and People Development Specialist. She wrote ‘Working for Peanuts: The Project Linus Story’ in 2011. As a motivational speaker she shares her message that the little things can matter the most, obstacles can be an opportunity, and one person really can make a positive difference. She promotes The LINUS Effect: Live with purpose, Invest in others, Never say never, Undertake something bold, Start now.

The non-profit organization is now managed by President Patty Gregory and VP Mary Balagna. Several special events have been developed over the years. National Make a Blanket Day began in 1999 after the Columbine High School shootings. A large quantity of blankets was made in a hurry to provide for that tragedy which led to organizing an annual event. Each year on the third Saturday in February up to 100,000 blankets are donated. A quilt pattern book was released in 2012, Quilt It with Love: The Project Linus Quilt Story, and it is still available at amazon and bookstores. The Mystery Quilt Challenge, with prizes awarded to the 1st-4th place community favorites, started in 2015. Patterns from former years are available to purchase online at projectlinus.org. The 2020 pattern will be released in late summer.

The San Antonio Project Linus contact is Ann Strautman, linus-sa@sbcglobal.net, 210-679-6654. Blanket making gatherings have varied throughout SA and Schertz. Quilts are donated to The Children’s Hospital of SA, CPS, Methodist Children’s Hospital, and emergency situations. General blanket requirements are detailed at projectlinus.org, although some chapters have more specific size and material requests.

Post-note: Karen Loucks was married for nine years to bad-boy Cream rock drummer Ginger Baker who for some time was known for his violent temper and substance abuse. She is currently an ordained non-denominational minister who performs customized marriage ceremonies in Colorado.

2020 Summer Quilt Retreat August 9-14
 Valley Ranch Retreat
 Camp Wood, Texas

We're Having a Beach Party!!!

I hope everyone is well and staying safe during these unprecedented times. I want to let you know that due to the current situation with Covid-19, we made a decision to postpone Summer Retreat. A June retreat is at risk if the stay at home/social distancing orders are extended. Even if orders are lifted by May, many might still be uncomfortable being away from home or attending retreat in June. Our revised summer retreat dates are Sun August 9- Fri Aug 14. I'll reach out to everyone who has signed up. Those unable to attend on the new retreat dates will get a full refund.

Those currently signed up should look for an email from me soon with more details. The cost is $440.00. To register for summer retreat, a $50 deposit AND your completed Information Sheet must be turned in to be entered on the Retreat Roster. The Information Sheet is posted on the Website: <http://www.sanantonioquilt.org/pages/SummerRetreat.html>

If you have any questions, please contact Linda Casias by email at lcasias2000@satx.rr.com or by phone and text at 210-381-3519.

I finally received over 200 yards of 1/4 elastic. I bought it with the intention of donating it to people making face masks. If anyone or organization would like some, just email me at ammatonak@gmail.com or text 210-364-7825. I cannot deliver but I live off Wurzback and Evers. I have a small front gate which we have used to put items for pick up so no contact is necessary. If the masks are to be sold, I will have a donation jar and asking 30 cents a yard.

Hi my name is Linda Britt and I am not a member of your quilting Society. I am a simple quilter who has had a strong calling which I know is from God to help the Hopi and Navajo Indian nations. They are in desperate need of face mask. They asked the federal government for assistance and were sent body bags instead. I have spoken with both tribes and have found that on the Hopi reservation most have no running water or electricity and on the Navajo Nation some have electricity but it's a small percentage. I am looking to find people who will help me make masks to send to them. The Navajo Nation is experiencing a bad outbreak and this affects the Hopi Nation because it is completely surrounded by the Navajo Nation. If you could reach out to your members and ask if anyone would volunteer to make masks I have the addresses for each Nation to where they can be sent. I have no money for shipping or fabric it would simply be out of the generosity of Their Own Heart.

They have approximately 250 healthcare workers and 15000 tribal members. I found out today that there are multiple organizations helping the Navajo Nation but none helping the Hopi. When I spoke to the Navajo Nation I was led to believe that no one was helping them now I find that Doctors Without Borders is there and there is an organization here in San Antonio sending face masks to them. So for now I'm going to just concentrate on helping the Hopi tribe.

Please mail the face masks to:

Attn: Jollette Arerrta- The Hopi Tribe – HERT

PO Box 123

Kykotsmovi, AZ 86039

Thank you for anything and everything you do. God bless and stay safe. Oh please tell the ladies or gentleman to include their name and address in the Box. Jollette has requested this so she could send thank you's. Thank you in advance for anything you can do. The smallest contribution will help. Sincerely Linda Britt.
