President's Letter

You just never can tell! Dea Jae and I were sure the R – Z folks would burden the free tables with an abundance of fabric scraps, but, nope! This month members from G – P are allowed one huge tote bag of scraps to donate. Anyone who sees something they can possibly use is welcome to grab it. If you see Dea Jae reaching for something remind her she's on a fabric diet!

Books and magazines will be accepted this month from anyone who has no further use for them. Becky Zoellich will put a reasonable price on them with the proceeds going to the guild's general funds. You might want to bring an empty tote or two for the treasure you may find.

Wasn't Vickie Owen's presentation amazing? Those collage quilts are so sweet and look like such fun. They seem highly addictive, too, for all of us who played dress up with dolls. The guild's Ethel Howey grant for 2020 was awarded to Linda Kirk for use exploring fiber art expression. She will be on the schedule next year. The grant program is in abatement until 2023 when details will be printed in the newsletter. Applications will be accepted on or before August 1 with the grant being awarded at the following January guild meeting. If you find a workshop or class you would like to take and you think the guild would benefit from knowing about it, consider applying when the time comes.

Keep cool and quilt on - - Mary

7.2022 Pieces of the Past, 147: Summer Fun & Games - July, by Ellen Hernandez

Sewing, quilting, and crafting are such fun. Here are a few clips to enjoy while working on summer projects.

*Sung to the tune of "Mama Mia." See the link below for the video and the rest of the song. Too cute!

https://www.youtube.com/watch?app=desktop&v=GpzwVRahJ6I&feature=share&fbclid=IwAR0PeWLVLIIGIziLExlKrkq9zIEo-eRvcnbSAzpZATqsSCXdhwk_ryWPSQ

"I've been hoarding supplies
Since I don't know when.
A sale's been advertised
Time for shopping again.
Look at my house
There is no more room.
And my poor spouse
Sits surrounded by fabric rolls.
Things have spiraled out of control.
Just one sale and I forget everything.
I must go and buy all the pretty things.
Woa -oh -oh -oh."

*Watch a 1940's style song and tap dance advertising Kimberbell's Clear Blue tiles used to mark quilting designs in a hoop.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F4A_IQIbd4s

*Cathy Miller has been writing and singing quilting songs for years. Here is a silly one, "You Can Quilt That Out."

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nEnWbCm9WGg>

*Need a kids reading activity? Check out "The Josefina Story Quilt" read at KidFunCo.

<https://www.pinterest.com/pin/515310382367140447/>

*A touching, sentimental reading of Accuquilt's 2016 "So God Made a Quilter."

"I need someone willing to stay up all night to finish binding a project, only to give it away the next day to a newlywed couple, a wounded soldier, or a newborn baby. Someone who can make a shroud, so soft and tiny, it could be used to wrap a child on its journey back to heaven."

*Name that quilt block. Hint: all have animal related names. Answers and free online patterns with step-by-step directions can be found at <https://www.generations-quilt-patterns.com/free-quilt-block-patterns.html>
