President's Letter

It was such a pleasure to meet Karen Miller and learn from her program and classes in March. I believe all of us who attended the classes were inspired to practice and to get creative with different thread weights.

Again this month I have excellent news to share with you! Linda Casias has volunteered to shadow Ina Ramirez in April and then assume the role of 2nd Vice President for Information in May. Linda sees this as a natural accompaniment to her position as Marketing chair. If you attended the March general meeting you know that she is already working to modernize our Facebook page and set up an Instagram account. Welcome to the Executive Board, Linda!

As we welcome Linda we give sincere thanks to Ina for her work as 2nd Vice President. New to the role of President in 2023, I was beyond grateful to Ina for staying on after her term expired. We didn't have a volunteer to replace her, and we wouldn't have had a newsletter had she not agreed to serve another term. Thank you, Ina, from all of us.

Speaking of our newsletter, be sure to read it each month. It contains the usual minutes and basic information but can be highly entertaining as well. In our March issue I loved "Faux Fur," by Ellen Hernandez. It reminded me of a coat my great-grandmother Rosella Barnes Brown had owned around 1940. It was a gift from my mother. Although it wasn't real fur, it looked very much like Persian lamb. "A Husband's Speech on Quilting" was another great article. If you missed either article you'll want to check out the March newsletter on our website.

Hope to see you at our April meeting! In the meantime, happy quilting.
Elaine

WELCOME NEW MEMEBERS!

PROGRAMS 2024

April: Jean Ann Bryant presents "What quilt personality are you?"

May: Guild Birthday/Workday
Voting on the Biggie Bag Challenge tops

June: Beth Cunningham, Beadwork
Friday Class: Scarab Beetle: Raw-edge Applique & Beading, $30 Kit Fee
Saturday Class: Beading a Mandala, $30 Kit Fee.
Sign Ups and Needs Lists at April meeting

- Mary McCarthy, 3rd VP for Programs

WALKER RANCH BEE

Come one come all, we need to get our numbers up, for the quilting group on the Third Wednesday of the month. We have managed to get the same 3rd Wednesday for this next year. The only thing that has changed is we can meet at 9 am and sew till?....

Remember they have no services. Bring coffee snacks or whatever unless you want to eat there. There's a Ninchas about 1 block away. Now you know that you all have handwork to do, so if you don't want to bring machines. Or get your fabric and patterns out, and bring your cutters, and scissors, and cut the next quilt.

Our next bee is April 17th, all are welcome!

Call Shirley if you have any questions at 210-452-3801.

NEW TIME for Quilt Projects Finishing Committee!

AFTER the guild meeting EACH MONTH THAT WE DO NOT HAVE additional activities. Plan to stay for an hour or so to see what QPFC has to share with everybody. This is a fun way to get more involved...you can do as much or as little as you wish, and you'll get to know people and see what quilts and projects are in progress. We will meet about 30 minutes after the guild's full meeting ends. Plan to stay, bring sack lunch if you'd like. Everyone welcome. Please come.

Thanks, Ida

All guild members may advertise in the newsletter one free business card size each year. Must be quilt related.

4.2024 Pieces of the Past, 167: Printed Games, by Ellen Hernandez

Taking time out to enjoy the pleasures of games is not a new notion. Historical gameboards provide evidence to this fact dating back centuries. One of the oldest known gameboards, Senet, was discovered in 1922 in the tomb of King Tutankhamen from 3200 years ago. Many other ancient gameboards from the Near East include The Royal Game of Ur, Hounds and Jackals, Mehen, Mancala, Tabula/Backgammon, and Chess. Fast forward to the late 1800s and the companies of McLoughlin, Bradley, and Parker were highly successful in the manufacture and sales of board games. Another company, Selchow and Righter, was founded in 1867 in Bay Shore, New York. Parcheesi was their first popular game after trademarking in 1874. Their other successful games were Anagrams, Scrabble, and Trivial Pursuit.

As early as 1896 Selchow and Righter started printing party games on linen. The process was inexpensive and the products could easily be mailed. Our Cinderella Party was played like Pin the Tail on the Donkey. The large fabric piece could be attached to the wall and the fabric shoes were cut out to be used by the players. After being blindfolded, the gamer was to pin the shoe on Cinderella's bare foot. Some of these original game kits can be found for sale at auction for as much as $350. A Buster Brown girl was printed on oilcloth in 1910 with black neckties to be pinned to the top of her suit. Game production decreased during the rationings of WWI, The Depression, and WWII. Later there were more companies and considerable competition. The Selchow and Righter Company sold to Coleco Industries for $75 million in 1986.

The Monkey's Donation Party Game from 1900 was similar to pin the tail game but asked "Please put a penny in the cap." A fabric sheet with printed pennies and a package of straight pins were included.

A variety of dolls and toys were also printed on fabric to be completed by the home sewist. Feedsack enthusiasts are familiar with the many dolls printed in the 1930s and 1940s. Gloria Nixon has compiled a great collection in her book, Rag Darlings, available online. Art Fabric Mills printed a ball of six colored oval pieces. Recent finds of the uncut pattern have sold for $300.

MacGregor Games currently creates transportable fabric game boards primarily for reenactment groups. They offer the historical games of 12-Man Morris, Fidchell, Cribbage, Gluckshaus, Hnefatafl, Pope Joan and Ringo, as well as Checkers.

Happy Mother's Day (a little early)

Congratulations to Kate Elliot who was declared the winner of the 2023 raffle quilt!! The first winner stopped communicating and failed to claim her prize, and after six months, the board and I decided it was time to award the quilt to the second winner.

Kate is a fellow quilter from South Carolina, who while visiting her parents, purchased a raffle ticket at Sew Special during Shop Hop. Kate was so excited when she received my phone call, and her excitement was very joyful to hear. Kate decided to gift her mother, Jaynie Hatton, the quilt as a surprise on Mother's Day and I agreed to help make it happen. I had to laugh as those plans were accelerated and Katie's parents came and picked up the quilt. . . the next day. LOL Kate, Jaynie (pictured), and her dad want to extend to the quild, their grateful thanks and appreciation for all the hard work and talent exhibited in the making of the quilt. Happy Ending.

Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West

Quilt Exhibition On View March 2 - August 3, 2024

First exhibition of its kind at SMA!
Art Quilts from African American Women Artists.

BLACK Pioneers: LEGACY IN THE AMERICAN WEST

Organized by The James Museum of Western & Wildlife Art with gratitude to guest curator Carolyn Mazloomi, PhD.

STARK MUSEUM OF ART

This exhibition, the first of its kind, explores the path of Black history in the West with a timeline of original pictorial quilts. The timeline begins in 1528, with Esteban's dramatic story, which marks the arrival of Africans in the American West and continues through the Civil Rights Movement.

Dispelling the myth that Black people in the old West were mostly cowboys, Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West, shows rich diversity in their occupations and achievements in society, religion, education, and the arts.

Choosing quilts as the visual medium for this exhibition accentuates the intersections of African Americans in the Western Frontier while informing others about the art form and its important role in African American history.

This exhibition is organized by The James Museum of Western & Wildlife Art and Dr. Carolyn Mazloomi, curator, historian and artist. The quilts have been created by the Women of Color Quilters Network especially for this exhibition.

Admission is free to the Stark Museum of Art located at 712 Green Avenue in Orange, TX.

Special Events

10th Annual Juried Student Art Exhibition

March 27 – May 15, 2024

Piece by Piece, in conjunction with the Black Pioneers Exhibition

Quilt Garden at Shangri La Botanical Gardens & Nature Center

Beginning in April, Shangri La Gardens will feature a Quilt Garden. These gardens will showcase a fusion of traditional quilting patterns using plants as the medium. Among the myriad of quilting designs featured will include the North Star, Shoo y, Log Cabin, Bow Tie, Flying Geese, Pinwheel and 9 Block patterns. Each garden promises to be a kaleidoscope of color, intertwining the narrative of Black Pioneers, while fostering a deeper appreciation of both art forms.
