President's Letter

Congratulations to Biggie Bag Challenge winners Ellen Hernandez, Karen Lambdin, and Nancy Beasley! There were so many beautiful and colorful entries that choosing favorites was a difficult task, indeed. Thanks to our organizers, helpers, and stitchers who helped make this project such a success.

There was excitement in the air when Linda Casias presented the Auction Sneak Peek at our May meeting. Our first online quilt auction is just three months away! This idea has been floating about for several years, and now it's becoming a reality. Ida Kujawski and Jean Hardies displayed two gorgeous auction quilts from QPFC (Quilt Projects Finishing Committee). Based on the "oohs" and "ahhs" I heard, we're in for some enthusiastic bidding. Stay tuned for further news!

If the decibel level was an indication, attendees who stayed for the workday enjoyed the camaraderie. Thanks to Mary McCarthy for ordering our sandwiches, Barb ShROUT for picking them up, and Jean Hardies for bringing the birthday cupcakes. As always, we appreciated the efforts of members who stayed to help with cleaning up and putting the room back in order.

I hope you liked having the VP reports presented by the President. This saved time and allowed for the lengthier progress report on auction plans without dragging out the business meeting. I welcome your feedback. If you were happy with this approach we will continue with it as often as possible.

Enjoy Memorial Day weekend and Summer Retreat. I look forward to seeing you at our June meeting.

Sincerely,
Elaine

WALKER RANCH BEE Revised Time

I just found out on the 17th of this month, that Walker Ranch has changed their. policies. After talking with the new mgr, and the director of classes, I persuaded to give us 3 hours. FROM 9-12 . STILL ON THE 3rd WEDNESDAY OF THE MONTH.

If you have a small machine and want to bring it, please do so, with an extension cord. Or we can put tables together, so you can stretch a quilt out, to pin it etc. Remember to bring any snacks, or drinks, as they only supply water.

Also cutting fabric, (bring your own cutting board.) and hand-sewing are good options.

Any questions, please call Shirley Carter at 210-452-3801

NEW TIME for Quilt Projects Finishing Committee!

AFTER the guild meeting EACH MONTH THAT WE DO NOT HAVE additional activities. Plan to stay for an hour or so to see what QPFC has to share with everybody. This is a fun way to get more involved...you can do as much or as little as you wish, and you'll get to know people and see what quilts and projects are in progress. We will meet about 30 minutes after the guild's full meeting ends. Plan to stay, bring sack lunch if you'd like. Everyone welcome. Please come.

Thanks, Ida

What is this Block of the Month Drawing?

Beginning in May, 2023 as a fun way to use up scraps, share some quilt block ideas, and offer members a head start of getting a quilt top going – monthly Guild meetings have featured a Block of the Month Drawing.

In April 2023, an instruction sheet for the May Two Step block was distributed at the meeting and posted in the PDF section of the Guild website. Members were encouraged to make as many Two Step blocks as they liked, knowing that for every block submitted they got a chance to win ALL the blocks turned in. No restrictions applied to what the winner could do with the blocks – use them for a quilt of their own, create a charity quilt, let them sit in their UFO box waiting for inspiration to strike. Whatever!

During the May 2023 meeting over 60 blocks were submitted and ultimately won by Alicia Santiago. And what did she do with all those blocks? She handed them over to Bright Hopes and they found their way into quilt tops for the kids at Roy Maas.

One year later, the Block of the Month Drawing is still going strong. Cindy King and Viki Ash introduced the May 2024 block, the Disappearing Nine Patch, at the April meeting. If you didn't pick up a copy of the instruction sheet – no worries. You can find it the Guild homepage. Just scroll down to the PDF section, print out the sheet and get sewing!

Bring your blocks to the May meeting – and who knows – maybe YOU WILL WIN THEM ALL!

6.2024 Pieces of the Past, 169: Martha Pullen, by Ellen Hernandez

Recently a friend gave me a large bag of hand crocheted trims, laces, and cutwork that had belonged to her mother-in-law. She had no idea what to do with them and thought that I could use them in my sewing projects. While sorting through the items I could identify trim of a particular size that fit perfectly on the edge of vintage pillowcases, a project my own grandmother often crocheted. The laces brought to mind a PBS show from the 1990s, Martha's Sewing Room. I can still hear Martha saying 'entredeux' in her Southern drawl as she described her heirloom pieces and projects. At the end of the shows, she took you up to her 'attic' and displayed and described items from her vintage clothing collection. Most of her projects in the beginning were delicate white children's dresses which I thought were impractical. She was popular, though, and her show aired for 17 years. Whatever happened to Martha?

Little Martha Campbell loved sales and ventures from an early age. She won an award for selling the most magazine subscriptions in elementary school and opened a dance school at age 14, saving her money for college. Martha earned a PhD and was a college professor but really wanted to be her own boss. She was introduced to imported French fabrics and laces by some of her husband's friends and in 1981 opened a unique fabric shop in Huntsville, AL. The first of her 70 books was French Hand Sewing by Machine in 1983. Her magazine, Sew Beautiful, was successful for 27 years. The PBS Sewing Room show helped make Martha internationally famous, teaching heirloom sewing around the world. She had many guest crafters and featured their works, such as fabric designers, quilters, and embroiderers. Martha made a wide assortment of items from pillows and other home dec to doll dresses and baby bonnets. She demonstrated silk ribbon embroidery, pleating, smocking, and her favorite, lace insertion. She started the School of Art Fashion in Alabama, a four-day series of classes taught by a team of seamstresses that were always a sell-out. Martha described her passions as God, family, and business. Wishing to share her success as a business woman, she wrote two books, You Can Make Money from Your Hobby: Building a Business Doing What You Love in 1999 and G.R.A.C.E Keys to Entrepreneurship in 2014.

Martha wanted to care for her ailing husband full time and sold her Company for millions in 2005. Since then, Martha has resurfaced at age 81, offering online classes at RockStarSewing.com. She has partnered with Bernina and teaches online from her home studio and plans to design her own line of fabric and lace. Her Heirloom Licensing course prepares one to teach heirloom sewing.

The tradition of a lace christening gown continues in Martha's family with the most recent recipient, her first great-grandson. Wylder's mom, Morgan, collaborated with her grandmother, Martha, and the magnificent embroidered fifty-inch lace gown was completed by seamstress Connie Palmer.

An interesting blast from Martha's past was an exciting meeting with JFK in 1963 when she was a cheerleader with U of AL at the Orange Bowl in Miami. Martha was so overwhelmed with excitement she still can't remember anything she said at the time.

Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West

Quilt Exhibition On View March 2 - August 3, 2024

First exhibition of its kind at SMA!
Art Quilts from African American Women Artists.

BLACK Pioneers: LEGACY IN THE AMERICAN WEST

Organized by The James Museum of Western & Wildlife Art with gratitude to guest curator Carolyn Mazloomi, PhD.

STARK MUSEUM OF ART

This exhibition, the first of its kind, explores the path of Black history in the West with a timeline of original pictorial quilts. The timeline begins in 1528, with Esteban's dramatic story, which marks the arrival of Africans in the American West and continues through the Civil Rights Movement.

Dispelling the myth that Black people in the old West were mostly cowboys, Black Pioneers: Legacy in the American West, shows rich diversity in their occupations and achievements in society, religion, education, and the arts.

Choosing quilts as the visual medium for this exhibition accentuates the intersections of African Americans in the Western Frontier while informing others about the art form and its important role in African American history.

This exhibition is organized by The James Museum of Western & Wildlife Art and Dr. Carolyn Mazloomi, curator, historian and artist. The quilts have been created by the Women of Color Quilters Network especially for this exhibition.

Admission is free to the Stark Museum of Art located at 712 Green Avenue in Orange, TX.
