November 9 PROGRAM

VETERANS' QUILT
PRESENTATION

AND

BOARD ELECTIONS

President's Letter

It's November, the traditional time to give thanks for our many blessings. For me, that includes membership in the Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild. Serving as Guild President for the past two years has been a great privilege.

Our dedicated Board members and committee chairs have worked tirelessly to help us grow and change with the times. One exciting change is that our Board now includes a mixture of seasoned members and those serving for the first time. This has brought us fresh ideas and given some long-time members an opportunity for a much-deserved break. Let's support and encourage those who step up to serve.

Thank you all for your many contributions to our Guild. Wishing each of you a very Happy Thanksgiving!

Elaine

Programs Update

A round of applause and bouquets of thanks to Barbara Sumlin, Bernie Farris, and Vonnie Maglinte for giving us a peek into their marvelous stash of quilts. Inspiring!

Community Quilt Angels will give the presentation on Veterans' quilts at this month's meeting.

December will see us enjoying a holiday cookie party. Gail Clover and I are decorating and happy to accept offers of assistance. Give Gail a buzz if you would like to help set up.

Dea Jae Shore is presenting Electric Quilt to us in January. If you have been thinking of getting this wonderful tool she will be happy to answer any questions.

Annie Smith will share her applique skills with us in February. It would be lovely to see more applique on the quilts in our Show and in our Auction. There is room in the class so don't be shy. Like anything, the key to applique success is practice!

- - Mary McCarthy, 3rd VP for Programs

If you're heading to the Houston Quilt Show this year, check out my quilt, "Birds Flying High, You Know How I Feel" as part of the red-white-blue anniversary quilt display.

It features hand quilting and redwork and bluework embroidery. Ellen Hernandez

Congratulations, Karen Lambdin!!!

Karen won a 1st Place Blue Ribbon in the category of Machine Quilting at the International Quilt Festival in Houston. Karen's quilt also won Best of Show at our GSAQG Quilt Show in 2023.

It's Time to Vote!!!Elections will take place at the November 9th Guild General Meeting.

Ida B.'s Quilting Guild Enrichment SCHOLARSHIP Fund

One MISSION of GSAQG

- To stimulate an interest in quilts and to advance the art of quilting.

Recognizing the importance of active participation in quilt guild events and activities, Ida Blankenship Kujawski has provided funds to establish a Scholarship Account. This scholarship fund will enable guild members to apply for financial assistance to cover fees for workshops and retreats, further encouraging engagement and skill development within our community.

PURPOSE

- Enhance Guild Membership Experience: Foster greater enjoyment of guild membership by promoting skill development and friendships through active participation in guild activities.
- Encourage Participation: Motivate members to attend workshops and retreats, enhancing their skills and connections within the guild.
- Financial Support: Provide financial assistance to members who may be on a tight budget, helping to alleviate the costs associated with workshops and retreats.
- Establish a Donation Fund: Create a Scholarship Fund that can receive additional donations in the future. These donations can come from anyone for various reasons, further supporting the guild's activities and members.

ELIGIBILITY

- Applicant must be active member of GSAQG for the (1) year preceding the date of the event.
- Special consideration to "First-time attendee"
- Scholarships for guild workshops and retreats are available each year. Workshop required kit fee provided by instructor could be included in Scholarship amount.
- Guild Workshops offered as 2 sessions (Friday/Saturday) would qualify for two scholarships, to help two members.
- One scholarship per member in a calendar year.
- Scholarship recipients are ineligible to reapply for:
 - 3 years for Winter or Summer Retreat
 - 2 years for Mini-Retreats
 - 2 years for Guild Speakers' workshops

Paper copy of Applications available by chair at onset of enrollment.

Applications must be submitted to the individual retreat chair, or guild program chair, who will present to the guild board for final approval. Each chair should have committee of 2-3 to help evaluate applications.

Applications should be submitted at beginning of enrollment for each event. Awards can then be announced early enough to allow recipients and chair to plan accordingly.

AUCTION NEWS!

Thanks to all our members who helped make our recent Online Auction successful.

Here are details for the NEXT Auction, also online, which the huge majority of members voted FOR.

WHY ?

Because we bought the program for a year...It's paid up to the end of May.

Our guild needs the possible income from a fundraiser.

We have some nice quilts ready or almost ready; more have been offered, more ready to be finished within the timeline.

We have two members willing to be Co-Chair for the event. More have said yes, they will be on the new Auction Committee.

WHEN?

MAY 2025, about the first week. (That lines up with paydays, and before vacation flurries.)

FEBRUARY guild meeting is "turn-in" goal, when we will take photos and begin advertising.

MARCH – APRIL Use direct and social contacts to tell everyone we know about it.

WHAT CAN YOU DO NOW?

You can help finish, or make a new quilt for this next Auction. By yourself, or with your friends. Think modern quilt ideas.

Ruth Felty(L) , Ida Kujawski(R), &
Dee Leclair (not in photo) are Co-Chairs.

Do you longarm?

The Quilt Projects Finishing Committee(QPFC) has several finished tops of different sizes that need to be quilted.

We provide the top and backing. We reimburse the cost of the batting. The lack of tops being quilted is a major stumbling block to finishing quilts for the NEXT auction.

Good news— we don't tell you how to quilt it, and we don't give you a deadline.

Come to the finishing committee's table at guild meeting, or call Jean Hardies if you want to do a certain size top.

Thanks!

Silent Auction Items Needed For Quilt Show

Again Jean Hardies and I are organizing the Silent Auction for the show. We need you and your sewing and quilting skills to make it successful.

We will be collecting quilted items and related items to sell. Quilts, wall hangings, table runners, placemats, tote bags....

Please consider making items for us, and consider making a group project for us if you are in a bee. I'm asking now so that you have time to get creative!

Thanks, Sandra Lowell

Bright Hopes Christmas Quilts Now Due!

Hello Fellow Quilters!

Our delivery date for our Christmas quilts for Roy Maas Youth Alternative is fast approaching. If possible, bring your completed quilts to the November meeting. If you need a little more time after the guild meeting, you can contact me and we can make arrangements to pick them up.

Thank you for all your help to spread comfort and joy to people going through a crisis in their life.

Storybook Quilts: Chairperson Needed

If you are interested in quilts, kids and picture books – you are the perfect person to chair the Storybooks and Quilts to Go Committee.

The job responsibilities include contacting schools and libraries to interest them in sharing our quilt kits, arranging for delivery and pickup of the kits, tracking usage statistics, and engaging guild members in the creation of new quilt kits.

The pandemic put a bit of a damper on the use of our kits – so some promotional enthusiasm for this outreach project is needed to get things rolling again. The good news – chairing the committee is a great way to get involved with the quilt and make new quilting friends.

Please contact outgoing Chair Viki Ash or guild President Elaine Staller for additional information or to volunteer!

11.2024 Pieces of the Past, 174: The Mayflower Quilt, by Ellen Hernandez

Years ago, my cousin sent me details of her extended family research showing that we were descended on my mother's side from Mayflower passengers Edward Fuller, his wife, and son Samuel. When my mother was in her early 90s, I surprised her with a membership in the Society of Mayflower Descendants. They are a well-meaning historical group which estimates there are over 35 million descendants today. I have mixed emotions about celebrating our Mayflower great-grandfathers. It's moving to be related to historical, courageous, independent thinkers but those are the same people who ultimately exploited the native Wampanoag. Moving on, here is a tale of a "Mayflower quilt."

Textiles from the 1600s included wool, hemp, and linen. Rather than the romanticized black Pilgrim costume, natural dyes were used such as browns, dark yellows, rusty red, and some blues and greens. Black dye at that time was expensive and rare. Some items were not dyed at all. Cloth was so valuable that items were specifically passed down in wills. Probate records of Plymouth colonist, Mary Ring, who died in 1631 list "blue stockings, red petticoat, violet waistcoat, three blue aprons, two violet waistcoats." Interestingly, she also lists "two white blankets, one red blanket with the best Coverlet, and a gray Coverlet." William Brewster, a Plymouth elder who died in 1644 had recorded possessions of "green waistcoat, violet coat, blue suit, a quilted cap, old white Irish blanket, white English blanket." Clothing and fabrics transported by the Mayflower passengers were limited and not replenished for months to years. Local wool and flax processing took years to establish in the New World.

If there were quilts on the Mayflower, they would have been whole cloth made prior to 1620 and their survival would be rare. Whole cloth is misleading since looms were not wide, so strips of fabric were sewn together. The word "quilt" for a bedcover was not commonly used, but rather coverlet, blanket, or rugg/bedrugg.

The minutes of the United Methodist Church Baltimore-Washington Conference in 2022 references an item they have in archival storage: "Mayflower Quilt, a quilt that was hand-stitched in 1615, traveled across the ocean to what is now New England, and finally made its way into Dr. John Goucher's collection before being donated to our museum." The museum is the Lovely Lane Museum, Baltimore, MD. Very interesting story, but can this quilt be verified?

Darcy Pattison wrote an article, "The Mayflower Quilt" in Quilting Today in 1990. She reported that the quilt was made by an English vicar's daughter, Elizabeth Thompson Cogswell. Elizabeth's descendant, Susanna Williams, sold the quilt for $85 in 1897 to N.T. Whitaker who gave it to Dr. John Goucher, President of the Methodist Historical Society. Goucher's daughter, Janet, donated the quilt to Lovely Lane in 1955 where it was locked in a vault until 1976 at which time it was examined and described as a late 17th century work from the UK. The corded quilt top was fine linen, the back was coarse linen, and it was sewn with light blue linen thread, now faded.

Marylou McDonald, Baltimore Applique Society President in 2007 provided further information. The quilt was said to have been made by Elizabeth Cogswell in 1615. She and her husband, John, sailed on the ship Angel Gabriel in 1635, not the Mayflower. In 2005 quilt appraiser Hazel Carter concluded that the quilting was reminiscent of English patterns, but no specific date was given.

Back of quilt showing corded stuffing, two photos of front quilting.

Fiber Artists of San Antonio (FASA) and Spare Parts in CIRCULARITY

opening on Sunday, November 10, 2024, at 3-5 p.m.

at the Kelso Art Center in the Semmes and Condos Galleries.

This juried exhibition is a call for fiber artists to create artwork using unconventional, eco-friendly, or sustainable materials. Works will inspire action to reach a sustainable planet or reflect a vision of a sustainable planet for future generations. Works may choose to address one of the four pillars of sustainability: human, social, economic, and environmental/ecological balance. Fiber artists will utilize materials that create no waste, repurpose, recycle, or reimagine, which advances the circular economy. Exhibited works will reflect a growing fiber art awareness/movement that comments on, protests, illuminates or celebrates our hope for the future of a sustainable planet.

The exhibition and reception are free and open to the public.

Opening Reception: 3 p.m. - 5 p.m. Sunday, November 10, 2024

Ethel Howey Grant

The two-year $2000.00 grant has a deadline for application of August 1, 2025. Now is the time to begin thinking of classes that might be available to further your quilting skills. A browse of the web will yield many teachers forming their workshop schedules a year or two ahead. Please consider this wonderful opportunity.

GREATER SAN ANTONIO QUILT GUILD, INC ETHEL Y. HOWEY GRANT PROGRAM

MISSION

The Greater San Antonio Quilt Guild (GSAQG) has established a grant program in honor of a loved and esteemed founding member, Ethel Y. Howey, whose accomplishments and influence extended into the international quilt world. The grant is to encourage the pursuit of education in the study of quilt making and to recognize the importance of quilting in today's society as an art form, as an instrument of healing, as part of our legacy, and as a common thread which binds all in friendship.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the grant program is to fund projects that will have long term impact on preserving the heritage and further the art of quilt making. The grant may be used to cover expenses such as fees (including conferences, workshops, etc.), travel, lodging, meals, materials, and books. The grant(s) will be awarded in even numbered years, not to exceed $2,000. The Grant Committee may divide the monies between more than one recipient. The GSAQG is not obligated to award the entire $2,000 or any part thereof, if the quality of the proposals does not merit it.

ELIBILITY

- Applicant must be an active GSAQG member in good standing for the previous two (2) years immediately preceding the grant deadline.
- An applicant must show evidence of an interest in continuing to improve and innovate in the field of quilt design, construction, history, or technique.
- Financial need will NOT be a criterion for selection.
- Grant recipients are ineligible to reapply for grants for four years. Grant committee members are ineligible for grants while serving on the committee.

PROCEDURES AND DEADLINES

- Applications must be submitted on or before August 1 (current year), and the grant will be awarded at the following January Guild meeting.
- If the recipient fails to fulfill the requirements or is unable to attend the proposed project or program, the grant money must be returned within three (3) months of the cancellation, or on a timeline agreed to by the committee and the applicant. If an alternate applicant is available, the money may be transferred to the alternate with approval of the committee.
- Recipients must be willing and able to share with GSAQG the new skills, techniques, or information gained. This may be in the form of a presentation, a workshop, or other process that disseminates the information to the members in the year following receipt of the grant. Scheduling must be coordinated with the 1st Vice President for Programs.
- If a workshop or program is being presented, at a minimum of three (3) months before the scheduled Guild workshop or program, a lesson plan and class sample will be presented to the Ethel Y. Howey Chairperson, the 1st Vice President for Programs, and one Guild member-at-large.
- Recipient must submit, in writing, a final report of the project and expenses by March 1 of the year following receipt of the grant.

GSAQG ETHEL Y. HOWEY GRANT PROGRAM APPLICATION PROCESS

Following the stated timeline, submit a typed or handwritten application, not to exceed two (2) pages. Include the date, your name, address, phone numbers, email, number of years a GSAQG member, and explain:

1. Why you would like to receive this grant.
2. How you will use the grant funds, including a specific budget.
3. How you will share your new skills, techniques, and information with the membership.

Feel free to provide any additional information that will help the selection committee.
